A Lot of Clovers

Fairmont, W. Va.—Roman Fetherol's four-leaf clovers laid end to end would stretch along a big field. Roman, whose avocation is hunting the lucky emblems, rose from a stooping position in the meadow: "That's number 10,000 for me. They're not hard to find, although some persons might think so. Then again, maybe I'm lucky."

Fetherol also boasts a sizeable collection of five, six, seven, eight and nine-leaf clovers.

Southern Gentleman

Elizabeth City, N. C.—Recorder W. C. Morse, Jr., says "chivalry for southern womanhood" led him to fine Paul Williams $20 and costs for reckless driving and then reverse the verdict.

Mrs. D. S. Darden testified she was attempting to pass Williams' truck and that the truck pushed her car into a ditch.

Williams said she attempted to pass him after he had drawn almost abreast of another car.

Morse sentenced him and waited until Mrs. Darden left the courtroom. Then he gave a verdict of acquittal.

Quick Service

New York—Seventeen-year-old Calbert Kelley of Trenton, N. J., was tooting a trumpet at a band concert when he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his jaw.

The concert was stopped momentarily and a call went out for a physician.

There was an immediate response, for the concert was part of the entertainment at the convention of the American Institute of Homoeopathy, and approximately 500 doctors were there.

Several of the physicians examined Calbert and found he had the mumps.

New Room

Cripple Creek, Colo.—This historic mining town talked of a new "boom" today—an unbroken chain letter which reputedly netted its sender $15,435.

Reports, later verified, circulated quickly through this gold mining village that E. J. Duffy had received the last dollar from a chain letter which made the fantastic circle without a break in the span of 13 days.

Citizens said Duffy received his first dollar May 17 from Dr. C. L. Vitry, St. Johnsbury, Conn., and that the $15,435 dollar came today, from L. A. Pollis, North Adams, Mass.

SERIES OF POULTRY CULLING DEMONSTRATIONS

At the request of local Farm Bureau committees, a series of five culling demonstrations has been arranged for June 5 and 6. Prof. H. E. Botsford will conduct the demonstrations and all those in attendance will be given an opportunity to try their skill. All poultrymen are invited.

The first of the series will be held at Max Kleiman's farm at Ellenville, Wednesday morning, June 5, at 10:00 a. m. Wednesday afternoon another will take place at the W. Frey farm on S-W, south of Saugerties at 1:30. In the evening of June 5, at 7 o'clock, the third demonstration will be held at the Beloe Poultry Farm on Lucas Turnpike near Hurley, owned by Harry Kapiwits.

On Thursday, June 6, two demonstrations will be held. The first at 8 o'clock at the Jewish Community Hall near shore and the second at Raymond DuBois' farm near Gardner at 7 o'clock.

Cafeteria Supper

The Ladies Aid Society of the United Park Reformed Church will serve a cafeteria supper in Odd Fellows Hall on Thursday evening, June 6, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. An attractive menu will be prepared and popular prices will prevail. The ladies ask your generous support.

MILTON

Milton, June 4.—Improvements are being made in the Milton post office by Frederick Woolsey for Postmaster Michael Conroy which will facilitate the handling of the mail. A new door has been put in the north side of the building to provide a carriage entrance instead of using the front door as has been done in the past years. A new window has also been put in the north side. Other improvements are being made such as new letter boxes, etc., in the interior.

Contractors are making good headway on the new front for St. James Church at Milton which will present a much more elaborate appearance when it is completed. The new front is of brick.

A big improvement has been made in the appearance of the property of Mrs. Driscoll on the South road now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Stinson, who have opened a tourists' home there. It has a splendid location and should become a popular place.

A meeting of the Ladies' Needlecraft and Women's Missionary Societies of the Milton Presbyterian Church will be held at the home of Mrs. Grace Hewitt Wednesday afternoon, June 5, at 3:30 o'clock.

Seventeen dollars was realized from the card party for the Boy Scout fund held Wednesday evening in the Milton Grange. There is still $13 to be raised. Those who were not able to attend may give their contribution to Kenneth Taber, scoutmaster.

Mrs. J. J. Kaley and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kaley, and son, Arthur, left Wednesday by automobile for South Bend, Ind., to attend commencement at Notre Dame College. Joseph J. Kaley, Jr., is a member of the class.

The Junior League of the Milton Methodist Church is sponsoring a benefit play entitled School Days, which will be held in the church Thursday evening, June 6, at 7:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

Twenty-eight Girl Scouts from Milton and Marlborough attended the scout rally at Camp Wendy Saturday.

Mrs. Grover Ferguson, Mrs. George Baines, Mrs. Cosman and Miss Miana Strohman accompanied the girls.

Twenty-five members attended the recent meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society held in the Sunday school room at the Milton M. E. Church. Group three of the society, of which Miss Mary Taber is chairman, announced the group would sponsor an adventurous picnic which will include an auto trip over the recently completed Perkins Drive and is scheduled to take place Thursday, June 13. Following the business session a chapter of the mission study book was reviewed by Mrs. Jane C. Clarke. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Elvora Leroy and Mrs. D. N. Warren.

Robert Wilke of Troop 13, Milton, will attend the National Jamboree to be held in Washington, D. C., August 20 to 31. A total of 45 Boy Scouts and leaders will compose the delegation. The group will go into special training at Camp Half Moon on Wednesday, August 14, and will leave Monday morning, August 19, on a special train for the national capital.

At the meeting of the Maids and Matrons' Society of Milton on Tuesday afternoon, it was voted to give $50 to the Sarah Hall Hallowell Free Library. It was reported that the bingo party held by the club brought in $28.50 cleared. This money made part of the $50 for the library. The rest comes from the club treasury.

Mrs. William Plank, of the Maids and Matrons' education committee, led a discussion in which all participated of Milton's place in a centralized school system. The fact that every present school district would be represented on a central school board was brought out. The desirability of a Milton grade school was discussed. Considerable attention was given to the need for improving Albany officials with the fact that the town of Marlborough really wants the central school question settled one way or the other.

The Rev. Joseph A. Favier, of Walkill, who is supplying the pulpit at the Milton Presbyterian Church, conducted the Sunday evening service last Sunday evening. A fifteen minute organ recital by Irving Favier, accompanied by a concert played by Paul Favier, preceded the singing. Both musicians are sons of the Rev. Favier. The service was very much enjoyed by all who attended.

Milton members of the Highland Music Study Club, who joined the club in a trip to New York Saturday, May 25, were Mrs. William Lais, Mrs. C. R. Taber, Mrs. Oliver Kent and Mrs. Westervelt Clarke. Mrs. Vivian Bell, although not a club member, accompanied the group.

The Rockcliff House between Milton and Marlborough, which was recently purchased by L. B. Becher of New York from Mr. Saylors, is being renovated inside and outside by decorators from the city. Four men are at present engaged in making improvements in the interior. The house has 20 rooms and will accommodate a number of guests during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Becher and family moved up here from New York last week.

Murray Barlen, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barlen, underwent a mastoid operation last week in St. Francis Hospital, Poughkeepsie, by Dr. George Baner and Dr. McCambridge.

Clean up day was held by the Milton and Marlborough Lions Club on Saturday. Hugh V. Berone of the Milton Lions had charge of the work in Milton and James Shurtler of Marlborough had charge of it in Marlborough. Trucks collected the refuse in Milton in the morning and in Marlborough in the afternoon.

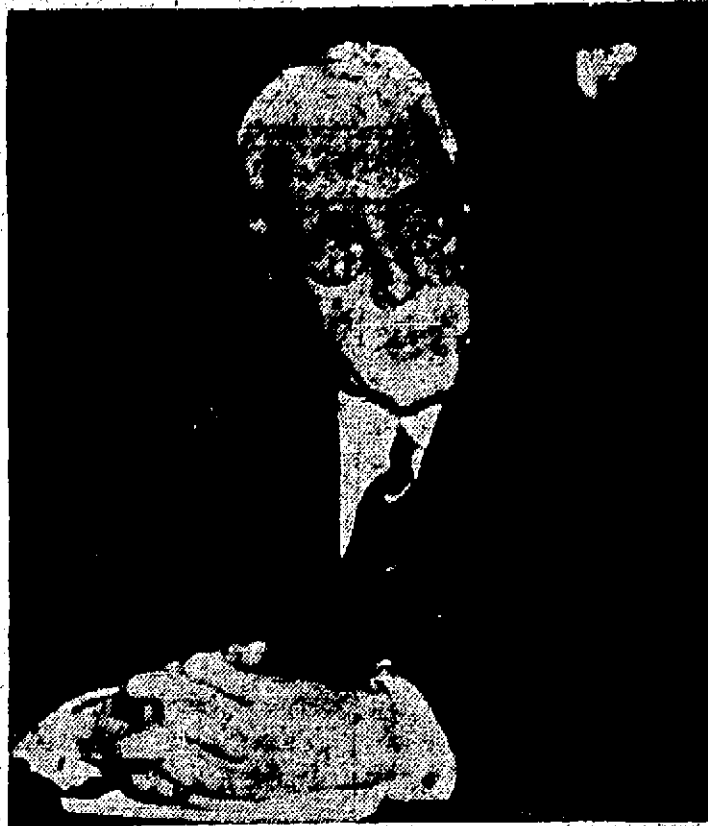

Mrs. Edward Young, Jr., attended the meeting of the Easy Acorn Card Club in Wickham at the home of Mrs. L. Seaman Friday afternoon.

Miss Anna Brown of Clatskanie is visiting her sister, Miss Mary Taber.

Edward Martin, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Martin, was operated on for appendicitis Tuesday evening in Cornwall Hospital by Drs. O'Leary and Harris.

Miss Gallagher of Marlborough is acting as teacher in the Milton school during the absence of Miss Elizabeth Kaley, who is attending commencement exercises at Notre Dame College, South Bend, Ind.

Mrs. Margaret Rush is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Margaret McDonald. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Recently the school children of Milton had the privilege of hearing a musical at which Mrs. Jean Miller of Highland, a professional singer, most graciously gave the children a concert. The Milton P. T. A. arranged for the program. Mrs. James Scott arranged this concert. She played several solos herself and accompanied Mrs. Miller. The program was entirely made up of contemporary music, American, French and Scandinavian. Helped by a few explanatory remarks the children accepted the music in a surprising and most encouraging manner. Intending to sing and play, the children were given an opportunity to join in singing "Swing Me" and "Daddy's Little Girl" and "Daddy's Little Girl" and "Daddy's Little Girl". It was a joy and inspiration to listen to all the lovely young voices as they were borne upward toward the skies. It made everyone realize the power and inspiration of good music. It was encouraging to see the large group of children who chose to attend this concert. To all the teachers and mothers goes much credit for getting there from the outlying district schools.

Mrs. Miller most generously promised the children another concert in the fall and it is hoped that this work can be carried on during the year to come.

Mrs. William T. Lais of Milton has been elected second vice president of the Highland Music Study Club for this year. The other officers were elected at a meeting of the club held at the home of Mrs. Martha C. Schantz, Highland.

Registration at the Cornell conference held recently included among county and city leaders, Mrs. Frederick Bond and Mrs. Edgar Clarke of Milton. The conference aims to help leaders of community groups to organize and promote study clubs, plan work on home play materials and their use, to advise on books for children and show the link between the college and extension work on child development and parent education.

You can see how tremendous is the power of the Supreme Court from the fact that, after that decision was rendered, Congress was silent for a whole day.

Now Hitler has drafted an "air Locomotive" proposal. It sounds good, but so far all those Locomotives have turned to Waterloo.

Harry R. LeFever, Jr., Gets Columbia Degree

Harry Russell LeFever, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. LeFever, of 136 Wall street, received his bachelor of arts degree Monday afternoon at the 75th commencement exercises of St. Stephen's College and the first of Bard College, Columbia University, Annandale-on-Hudson. Mr. LeFever, a popular member of the class, will enter postgraduate studies in the autumn at Columbia University, majoring in Optometry.

At the commencement exercises, attended by several hundred persons, including parents, relatives, trustees, alumni and students, the graduating class of 17 men was given a stirring address by Dr. William Pepperell Montague, professor of philosophy at Barnard College. Following the address degrees were awarded by Acting Dean Tewksbury.

In the evening the 75th anniversary of the founding of the college by John Bard was celebrated and a portrait of the founder, painted by F. W. Wright, and a gift of the late Richard Delafield, was unveiled. Brig. Gen. John Ross Delafield, a nephew of the donor, made a speech of presentation, and acceptance by the trustees was made by the Rev. Donald Clarkson.

The dinner marked the close of the commencement festivities.

SERVICES THIS WEEK IN FREE METHODIST CHURCH

The regular missionary meeting for the month of June will be held Wednesday evening at 7:45 in the home of the President, Mrs. John Gioia, 68 Cedar street. An interesting missionary study will be given by the pastor. Members expected. Visitors always welcome. There will be no prayer and class meeting on Thursday evening because of the quarterly meeting to be held over this week-end with the district elder, the Rev. Adam Kress, in charge and preaching all the sermons. Service on Friday night at 7:45; Saturday night at 7:45; Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Rev. Mr. Kress is always a welcome guest in Kingston. Elder Kress, who has the honor to be an official delegate, will go from Kingston to the General Conference of the Free Methodist Church which will convene in Winona Lake, near Chicago. This conference meets every four years.

Everyone invited to every service regardless of denominational affiliation.

Eligibility Tests For Loan Applicant

The local Home Owners' Loan Corporation announced today that dealing with the amendment to the HOLC act, signed by President Roosevelt last month, which permits the HOLC for a period of 30 days to accept new loan applications emphasized that such applications will be accepted only from home owners who are clearly in distress, and are threatened with the loss of their homes through foreclosure.

Applications for loans cannot be made at the Kingston office but must be made to the offices located in New York City, White Plains, Albany, Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo; and applicants may apply in person or by mail.

Those who seek a loan under the provisions of the HOLC act should remember the following tests of eligibility:

1. The applicant must have been in involuntary default on his home loan on June 13, 1933, and unable to carry or refund his present mortgage, unless it can be shown to the corporation's satisfaction that a default occurring later than June 13, 1933, was the result of unemployment or other misfortune beyond the applicant's control. The corporation was created to protect honest home owners who are in temporary difficulty, and not for the purpose of saving lenders from the results of their own past mistakes in making excessive loans, or in lending to persons not entitled to credit.

2. The past record of the applicant's integrity is a vital factor. Any applicant will be rejected as ineligible if his general record is unsatisfactory, particularly if he has deliberately defaulted on his existing indebtedness and has a record of not paying his bills when he is able to do so.

3. To redeem the home from forced sale or voluntary surrender, such sale or surrender must have taken place since January 1, 1933. 4. The applicant must be in actual distress with his mortgage indebtedness and threatened with the loss of his home by foreclosure. Applicants who have no present or prospective income of any character, and clearly could not meet the indebtedness, are ineligible unless their notes are also signed by responsible parties.

5. The property must be used by the owner as his home or held by him as his homestead and, as a rule, it must have been his home on June 13, 1933.

6. The home must have a value not exceeding $20,000 as appraised by the corporation. No loan may be made for an amount exceeding $14,000 or 80 per cent of the corporation's appraisal of the property, whichever is the smaller.

7. Ordinary farm property is not eligible unless the applicant draws his main livelihood from non-farm occupations.

8. No applicant will be granted a loan if such refinancing is intended only to protect a bank loan or other business obligation.

9. The corporation will not refinance the home of an owner who can continue to carry his present loan.

MARLBOROUGH YOUTH HONORED AT MANHATTAN

Joseph McCourt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius McCourt of Marlborough has been elected secretary of the Junior class of Manhattan College. Mr. McCourt graduated with honors from the Marlborough high school, class of 1932, and has been on the Manhattan College honor roll for the last two years.

The Ontario government expects 1935 to prove to be one of the heaviest tourist traffic years on record. Although the season has barely begun, figures gathered at border points show an increase of more than 10,000 in the number of cars that have entered Ontario from the United States compared with the corresponding period of last year.

400th Anniversary Of First English Bible

Over the signature of John H. Finley, Miss Martha Berry, William Allen White, and Robert E. Speer, announcement was made today of the formation of a national committee to sponsor a nation-wide commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the first printed English Bible.

Dr. Finley, speaking for the committee stated, "On October 4, 1535, the first printed English Bible, a translation by Miles Coverdale, was issued from the press. During the four centuries since that date, it has not only surpassed in circulation any other book in the world, but has profoundly influenced the lives of peoples and the ideals of governments."

"Regional, state, city and church committees throughout the country will be selected at once under the direction of the National Committee to carry out the commemoration program. Additional information and material will be released by the Committee as plans are developed and as the sub-committees are organized."

And a good many of these chain letter writers are the same fellows who have been kicking about other rackets.

Events Around The Empire State

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 4 (P).—Trooper Thomas B. Lynes, attached to the Fishkill barracks of the state police, met death last night when his automobile left the Red Hook-Madalin highway and struck a telephone pole. His body was found in the wreckage by two other troopers from the Rhinebeck barracks.

Highland Falls, N. Y., June 4 (P).—An attempt will be made late today to raise the tug Russell, 2nd, wedged in mud 80 feet below the surface of the Hudson river. Divers hope to find the body of Sivel Anderson, 35, one of two New York city seamen who lost their lives when the tug collided with the motor ship Chester late Thursday. The body of Thomas Moran, 35, has been recovered.

North Granville, N. Y., June 4 (P).—The drummer boy is dead. Francis M. Bartholomew, 86, known in this section as the "youngest Civil War veteran", died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Flora Moore, here yesterday. He served as a drummer boy with Company D, 123rd New York Regulars. He enlisted when he was 13. He had served as supervisor, town clerk and justice of the peace in Washington county.

Deposit, N. Y., June 4 (P).—Attempting to burn out a nest of tent caterpillars roost Mary Alexander, 82-year-old spinster, her life. She died last night from burns suffered Sunday.

Plattsburg, N. Y., June 4 (P).—After five relatives had filed objections to the will of Alphonse Stephan, wealthy convict, adjournment was taken yesterday in the contested will case until June 26. Stephan left more than $600,000 to establish bread lines in Germany. It is expected that the actual trial will start in the fall. Surrogate Charles Harrington said.

Son of a wealthy Philadelphia wine merchant, Stephan died last February in Danmore State Hospital after serving 43 years in prison for the slaying of a New York attorney.

In Stanley Baldwin Britain To Get Typical 'John Bull' As Premier

The following study of two of England's leaders, the one believed about to succeed the other as prime minister, is by Dewitt Mackenzie, head of the foreign service of The Associated Press. Years of service in London brought him into close touch with English governmental affairs and leaders.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

New York (P)—Britain is due for a striking change in governmental leadership if she carries out her present program for substituting Stanley Baldwin for Ramsay MacDonald as prime minister.

The two famous statesmen are as far apart as the poles in personality and, in many respects, in processes of thought.

Premier MacDonald is a socialist and an internationalist. Former Premier Baldwin is an ultra-conservative; a typical John Bull, who sometimes has been called a "Little Englander" by critics who like to look beyond the British horizon.

Baldwin Born To Wealth

Probably many of the differences can be accounted for in birth and upbringing.

MacDonald, the Scotman, was born in dire poverty, the son of a farm servant in the drab village of Lossiemouth on the inhospitable shores of the North Sea. From this beginning he battled his way with his own two fists through many trying years to fame. It was perhaps natural that early in life he turned to socialism and visions of international brotherhood, and cast his lot with the working class.

Baldwin, the Englishman, was a child of upper-class wealth. His road through England's famous institutions of learning and on to politics was easy. In time he, himself, acquired great wealth.

Long Party Leader

He was reared in the great Tory party, which represents the wealth and aristocracy of Britain.

The two men are about the same age, Baldwin being 68 and MacDonald 69. Each has been prime minister twice, and has held numerous other posts of distinction in the government.

Baldwin long has been the elected leader of the conservative party which now has a huge majority in the House of Commons, although the present government is nationalistic, which accounts for a socialist prime minister. MacDonald for many years was the elected leader of the British labor party, until he was thrown out by his followers when they felt he had deserted their cause in accepting the premiership of the present government.

Stanley Baldwin (foreground), slated to be England's next premier, differs widely in personality and thought from the present premier, Ramsay MacDonald (background).

MacDonald has a magnetic personality and an aptitude for leadership.

Intensely Practical

Baldwin lacks the personal magnetism of MacDonald, but his rugged personality inspires faith and confidence. He is conservative in every way, and has all the marks of the English country gentleman. He is slow to move, but when he does move he goes in a direct line. As a speaker he is unemotional and reserved, although some of his addresses have been called masterpieces of composition.

MacDonald has been described as a visionary by some of his opponents, and it has been claimed he has been too much interested in foreign affairs and not enough in the welfare of his own country. Baldwin is intensely practical and has devoted more of his energy to home affairs than to those of other countries.

Both Hard Workers

Both men are indefatigable workers. Baldwin, however, has always kept himself fit by plenty of exercise, while MacDonald has allowed his work to trespass on his health.

Baldwin once told me his theory of how a Prime Minister should handle the House of Commons. Here it is:

"It is a great mistake for a Prime Minister not to keep in touch with the Commons. The House of Commons is like a sickle woman. If you do not woo her persistently she will become jealous and get out of hand, but if you pay her constant court she will always be sweet and smiling."

AN OUTSTANDING EVENT OF ST. URSULA SCHOOL YEAR

The annual lawn party to be held Thursday, June 6, by the Mothers' Association of the Academy of St. Ursula, promises to be one of the outstanding social events of the school year. Bridge and pinocle will be played during both the afternoon and evening. In the afternoon cards will be played on the beautiful shady lawns surrounding the academy.

If the weather is unfavorable tables will be placed in the auditorium and corridors of the academy, which will also be used for the evening card party. All who plan on playing bridge or pinocle are asked to bring their own cards.

Two Nova Scotia summer hotels, at Yarmouth and Digby, situated at each end of what motorists know as the "French Shore", are scheduled to open Friday, June 28, and Thursday, June 27, respectively.

Flatbush Home Bureau

The Flatbush Home Bureau unit will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Palen, Thursday, June 6, at 2 p. m. Program planning for the year will be taken up and all members are asked to be present.

Having got a pretty good education in economics, the American people are now going to take a prolonged course of study in constitutional law.

Federal Recognition To Lieut. Clayton

Washington, D. C., June 4.—The Chief of the National Guard Bureau, by direction of the Secretary of War, today extended Federal recognition to Harold Victor Clayton as 2nd Lt., Battery A, 156th Field Artillery in the New York National Guard. This officer received his appointment from the governor of his state, and has qualified for his Federal recognition by passing the thorough mental, professional and physical examination required by law.

Lieutenant Clayton, who gives as his permanent address 93 Roosevelt avenue, has been identified with the National Guard since 1924 when he enlisted as a private in Battery A. In civil life he is engaged in banking.

Love may not be blind, but on these fine summer evenings it seems to think that all the passers-by are.

Youth—Darling, I've decided to speak to your father this very night and ask him if I may have you for my bride this very month.

Girl—Don't do it. This morning he broke his glasses and cut himself while shaving. Then he missed a train. He had a tire blow out on him on a very bad road. The doctor has just sent him a bill for mother's operation, and for supper mother had fish and onions, which he can't resist but which always makes him sick. Better wait a day or two, darling.

Dolly—How is your son getting along, Mrs. Briggs—the one who was such a clever ventriloquist?

Mrs. Briggs—He's doing very nicely, Miss; he's in a bird shop selling parrots.

One woman writer advises girls never to marry men who always talk loudly, which certainly seems sound advice.

Jess—Ella attracts the men, doesn't she?
Bess—Yes, her father is a steel magnate.

New Guest (at summer resort hotel)—Dull here?
Old Guest—Dull! Why, I almost wish that I had brought my wife.

Maybe a fellow could be twice as good, too, if there were only half as many commandments.

Sutor—Honey, don't you think you could manage to live on $25 a week?
Girl Friend—Get the license. I'll try it a week.

Prosperity should first be made fool-proof before permitting it to become the plaything of scheming politicians.

Young Man—Do you like short skirts?

Some women will never make good wives because they are far too busy trying to make good husbands.

Woman—What caused you to become a tramp?
"Ragged" One—The family physician said he advised me to take long walks after meals, and I've been walking after them ever since.

Before marriage a young man spends a lot of his time telling his best girl how unworthy of her he is. After marriage, he spends most of his time proving it.

First Nurse—Has he come to his senses yet?

SHOKAN

Shokan, June 3.—Teunis Vanderbent and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder Vanderbent of New York city came to their country place on the mountain road Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sharwell of Norfolk, Va., motored to Shokan last week. Mrs. Sharwell expects to spend the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Nelson Bell.

Judge Thomas Braithwaite held open air court on the Winchell store stoop Saturday and Sunday for the convenience of motorists essaying to pass through the village without benefit of new driving licenses. State Trooper R. J. Dunn and Deputy Sheriff Rudolph DeSilva of Boiceville were the officers who halted each and every car, and obligingly directed delinquent drivers to the halls of justice. The judge imposed a total of 21 fines on Saturday as a result of these activities on one of the busiest rural traffic corners in the state. Sunday, a few minutes after the court and officers had reached the scene of their labors, Joseph Patricio of Brooklyn was brought before his honor and duly assessed $5, which he rather cheerfully contributed to the public exchequer, as though relieved at getting off so easily. Other drivers, however, dug down into their Sunday jeans with a considerable show of reluctance. Sunday afternoon, at the height of traffic, lines of waiting cars extended up and down the north and middle boulevards while the alert officers scanned license cards. Local residents joined with weekend visitors in the crowd of spectators in Judge Braithwaite's court. Rich and poor shared alike and no distinction was made between shiny new cars and the more antiquated machines of another and brighter decade. The real and efficiency of Officers Dunn and DeSilva upon this occasion was a subject for much favorable comment on the part of spectators.

Mrs. Wealtha Kenney of New York city and Warden Castle of Baltimore, both of whom resided in Shokan many years ago, were callers last Friday at the home of their friend, Mrs. Margaret Rainey.

Mrs. Adam Kirk of Newburgh was a Sunday visitor to the Kirk camp in the Tice TenEyck foothills.

Walter Simpson, who at one time conducted a general store in the old village, called on acquaintances in the village center Friday. Mr. Simpson has been living in New York city but now makes his home in Kingston.

Elder and Mrs. Arnold Bellows have returned from their honeymoon trip through southern states and have begun housekeeping at Ashokan. The elder preached Sunday at one of his charges in Delaware county. Religious services were held in the local Baptist Church, however, with a number of out of town communicants in attendance.

M. Starkweather has rented the Winchell cottage near the corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Matthews of Kingston were recent visitors at the country home of Mrs. Matthews' sister, Miss Clara Lenox. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews for many years were well known citizens of Olive.

Robert Secor of Kingston was numbered among the many out of town residents visiting their Shokan places Sunday.

Morris and Alfred Rose spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rose.

June 3, 1913, news was received here of the murder in Spain of Richard Briggs and Walter Clemmons, both of whom had formerly been employed as stevedores on the Ashokan Reservoir construction work at Brown's Station. The two men had left this country in April to engage in railroad construction work in Spain.

Cary Bostock of Bryn Athyn, Pa., motored here and spent the weekend at the Bostock summer home on the mountain road. Young Bostock was accompanied by the following friends: Leonard Grillebaui, Odessa Gaertner, Ralph Allen and Fergus Joy.

The William Green residence property adjoining the school house grounds is reported sold to a Minnesota woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dibble of The Bronx enjoyed a vacation of several days last week at the Dibble home in the west end.

Mr. and Mrs. Yorkins are residing in the Lewis Thell cottage. Mr. Yorkins, a piano tuner, hopes to make his home permanently in this section.

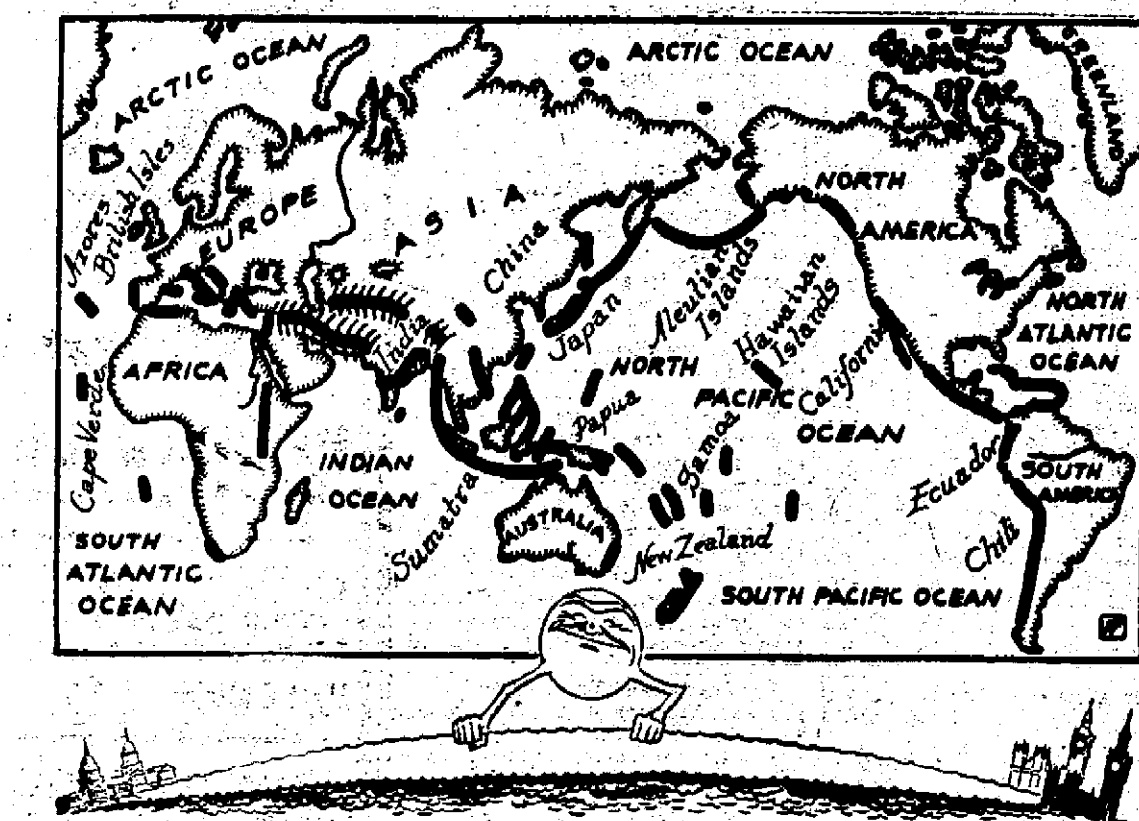

Guests at the Shokan House over the week-end included Mrs. Joseph Naughton and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Turbush, Jr., and daughter, all of New York city.

John Bertie has returned to New York city after spending two weeks at the Burnham farm-house.

Mrs. W. Rogers and daughter arrived last week to open their country home on Winchell Mountain. Other summer convalescents at this section here over Sunday included Philip Chase and family of Poughkeepsie and Mrs. Cornelia Chase and children of Warren, Pa.

Scientists Search For Cause As 'Quake' Wave Rolls Again

The map shows the earthquake "zone" in which tremors most frequently occur and to which a few days ago the "wave of quakes" rolled from northern India. In their search for causes of these seeming waves, scientists have noted the land ripples during extra high tides and have marked the fact that the moon's pull, the same force that causes the tides, causes London and Washington to move to and fro, toward and away from each other, about 60 feet every day.

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)

New York (AP).—Again the earthquake wave is in motion.

It rumbled through Turkey and Persia early in April taking 2,500 lives. Late in April it killed 3,100 in Formosa, injured 12,000.

A month's quiet, then at the end of May it rolled over northeast India.

What is this wave? For many years scientists have noticed it, the piling up of quakes now and then in some area of the world.

Both Real and Unreal

The answer is that it is both something real and something unreal. Unreal because the most exacting scientific investigation reveals no regularity, is forced to ascribe it to pure chance, the fact that a series of quakes just happens to hit places was numbered among the business callers in the hub of the reservoir country Wednesday.

Mrs. C. G. Fuller of New York city has arrived at her place, Mountain Laurel Lodge, on the north boulevard.

Mrs. Ella Secor of Kingston was a Shokan caller Saturday. Mrs. Secor expects to rent her two houses adjoining the Baptist Church grounds in the village center.

Mrs. Mary Coons is spending a few days at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Jane Bogart. Mrs. Coons, a resident of the heights section many years ago, served as an inspector in a Waterbury, Conn., munitions plant during the World War. Her girlhood home was the present farm of Edwin and John Secor of Ashokan.

Week-end guests at the Nabal farmhouse included the following New York city people: Mr. and Mrs. O. Eccrivante and nephew, Gene Bo. Manuel Frere, Isabel Lopez and Mr. and Mrs. M. Tenreiro.

A local real estate transfer of June 4, 1925, was that of a parcel of land near Sand Hill from Harriet and Rees B. Krom to Thomas Cobb. The Cobb farm, later known as the George Tower place, now is mostly included in the reservoir preserve.

Albert Wallenstein and family of Brooklyn motored here and spent Sunday at their summer home in the village center.

SOUTH RONDOUT. June 3.—Mrs. Michael Henry had the misfortune to meet with an accident, caused by falling down the cellar steps in her home and breaking two bones in her ankle. She is under the care of Dr. Ross.

Mrs. A. Minton and children of Kingston spent Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Schick of Third street.

Mr. Sharp and family of Kingston are moving into rooms recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bostock in Mr. Frank Spenners' house.

The lot owned by Richard Waller has been sold to parties in town.

Franklin of "Fair" position should say new NRA provide a code for the summer girl?

where population is dense. It is real in the sense that many wave-like motions have been discovered in the earth's surface, any or all of which might set off earthquakes.

Seismographs show ripples in the earth's surface when storms approach. The waves are ascribed to the heavier weight of air in one spot depressing the earth's surface in a dimple perhaps the size of several states.

Cities Move to and Fro

Extra high tides piling up on coasts send out similar land ripples. London and Washington move to and fro, toward and away from each other about 60 feet daily. At least this is the testimony of radio time signals. A stake set upright in the earth can be shown by astronomical measurements to move north and south.

A tide in the solid earth moving around with the pull of the moon has been proven many times.

The forces which cause the earthquakes lie underground. But the "triggers" which set them off when the strain becomes great are almost surely these earth surface waves. Nevertheless there is a path, well verified, where the big quakes occur.

The Earthquake Belt

This is a belt extending on both sides of the equator nearly to the frigid zones. Within it lies a streak serpentine like a snake big enough to encircle the earth.

His head lies flat along the Mediterranean, a coil drops deep into Africa, his body disappears beneath the earth to emerge just east of the section of India now stricken.

Thence it loops down through the Malay then bends north to Alaska and afterward south along the west coast of the two Americas until the tail ends a few hundred miles north of Cape Horn.

This streak is the area of "frequent violent earthquakes." Outside the serpentine quakes are less frequent. But they can occur anywhere within the belt that blankets both torrid and temperate zones.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, June 4.—Because of the construction work under way on the state road the Woodstock garage is conducting its gas and oil service at Happy's store for a few days.

The Food Shop on the post office corner is now open for business.

Warden Castle was in Woodstock for a brief stay over the holiday.

On Thursday, June 4, at 2:30, the Women's Missionary Society of the Dutch Reformed Church will hold the last meeting of the season. Mrs. Joel Brink and Mrs. Stephen Ryder, wife of the pastor of the Flatbush Reformed Church, will be guests at the meeting. Mrs. Ryder will tell of experiences of her husband and herself during their fifteen years as missionaries in Japan. Mrs. Ryder has spoken on this subject before and has always been an interesting speaker.

The Rev. Harvey I. Todd and wife celebrated their recent anniversary alone with a picnic, and a trip to Newburgh for a show and dinner.

The Christian Endeavor Society presented Mr. and Mrs. Todd with a beautiful clear glass water pitcher and glasses for their anniversary.

Mrs. Mary J. Schults of Bearville was sufficiently recovered from a recent illness to attend the Memorial Day services in the Woodstock cemetery.

Several out-of-town guests attended the Woodstock Memorial Day services. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, Mr. Herrick of West Hurley, John Osterman of Old Hurley and Mrs. Carney of Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Robert Strain has returned from Maryland for the summer in Woodstock.

Mrs. Zella Lasher of Bearville is suffering a slight illness.

The monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Tuesday afternoon, June 4, at the home of Mrs. Charles Washington.

One and George Compton have returned to Woodstock for the summer.

On June 25, the Woodstock Historical Society will hold the first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. George Schick. The first speaker will be H. A. Harlan, author of "Our Country's History." He will speak on "Early Colonial History."

WOODSTOCK

The second speaker will be Fred J. Johnston of the Pennington Studio in Kingston. He will speak on "Early Cabinet-makers of Ulster County." Both will have hand-made exhibits to illustrate their lectures.

The large gold fish captured by John Helfrick of The Nook was so unhappy in the narrow confines of a gold fish bowl that he committed suicide by leaping from the bowl.

George Haythorne was in New York Friday to get the theatrical equipment recently purchased by Robert Elwyn, managing director of the Mavorick Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Noody have returned to Woodstock from Green-wich, Conn.

Mrs. Hermann Oxendoller and children have left Woodstock to take up their residence in Wittenberg. The children are still attending the Woodstock school and will do so until the end of the term.

The luncheon given by the women of the Dutch Reformed Church on Memorial Day was attended by over 100 people. This was more than expected but luckily there was enough of the delicious mince, bean, gelatin and cakes to serve everyone.

The basement of the church where the luncheon was held was charmingly decorated with flowers from the garden of Mr. C. C. Schrader.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey I. Todd recently became the self-appointed guardians of "Rollo." Rollo is a familiar sight in Woodstock, a collie dog abandoned several years ago by his owners and since then befriended by one person after another.

Dyrus Cook, who is on the jury in Kingston, rides every day on "Jack" the donkey, over the Oghy mountain to Glenford. Here he leaves Jack and motored with friends to Kingston, returning to Woodstock in the evening on Jack.

A. J. Farrell held an auction of valuable antique furniture on Saturday. Most of the smaller pieces were sold, but the larger pieces failed to bring prices higher than the bids put in by Mr. Farrell.

Among those seen in Woodstock over the week-end were Martha Levy, Bryna Wilson, the Carbons boys, Agnes Schlichter, Mary D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Schneider, Barney Neumann, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ben Whitcomb.

Like "Kiss-the-Canvas" O'Brien, here pictured, we know a man who took the financial count when his home burned. He assures us there will be no second fire—not with sound fire insurance in his corner as a second.

Famous Keys Sisters Celebrate Birthdays

Holts, Okla., June 4 (AP)—The famous "Bunch of Keys"—Holts' quadruplet sisters—locked the door on their teens today.

For the first time in history, as far as is recorded, quadruplets are celebrating their 20th birthday.

There were four cakes bearing 20 candles each for the Keys sisters, Mona, Roberta, Mary and Leota, who were born to Mr. and Mrs. Flake Keys June 4, 1915.

Their clothes are alike and they all play the saxophone, but on this business of being quadruplets and 20, their observations vary.

Roberta—"Just think! In one more year I can vote."

Mary—"I'm not going to let being 20 cramp my style."

Mona—"I really regret leaving my teens."

Leota—"I still like the high school group, and I hate to grow out of that age."

There is no record in medical history that any other quadruplets or the offspring of higher multiple births ever reached maturity.

Yet a space of 17 days covers the birthday anniversary of three multiple groups which have survived the tremendous odds against them. The four daughters of Carl A. Morlok, Lansing, Mich., celebrated their fifth birthday May 19, and the world gazed in wonder at the first anniversary of the famous Dionne quadruplets May 28.

Strangely enough, all the groups are comprised entirely of girls.

A "surprise" banquet will be given in honor of the Keys quadruplets tonight by their fellow members of the Holts High School Alumni Association, at which the sisters will entertain as well as be entertained. All four sing and play the saxophone; Mona plays the piano, and Leota reads. She was chosen a member of the Baylor University "Little Theatre" during their sophomore year, just closed.

Trump Coup.

Would you as defender double a little slam contract holding four trumps to the queen-nine plus an ace-king of a side suit?

My friend, Irving Turman, never doubts a slam unless he is absolutely certain from his own holding that he can set the contract. In justification of his theory that doubles on good probabilities are bad is the following hand on which he was a loser at Bridge House, New York:

The bidding by South, the dealer, and North with the others passing was: One heart; three diamonds; three hearts; four hearts, four spades; six hearts. Thurman held the East cards. He naturally had high hopes of setting the slam, but did not wish to earmark the trump situation for a guess. Also there was a possibility that his ace of clubs would be trumped.

West opened the fourth best club. East won with the king and returned the ace, which was trumped South. The declarer's only problem was the trump situation, since obviously the diamonds North afforded a discard for a losing spade. If that suit should not break.

John J. Rooney, the declarer, showed his stuff. He led to the heart ace and returned a heart, sneaking the ten-spot. When West showed out on the second round of trumps, Rooney had to stop and think.

The solution he reached for the problem of preventing East from taking a trick, with the guarded trump queen, which could not be caught by finesse, was to get the hands down to two cards each.

North two diamonds, East two trumps; South two trumps and West immaterial. In order to reach that situation it was necessary for South to trump a diamond, even though it should be high, and to discard a high spade.

After winning the second round of trumps Rooney led to the king of diamonds and played the ace and a low one. The low diamond was trumped South, reducing the declarer's trumps to two. It would have done East no good to trump. He chucked a spade. The king of spades was played, followed by a lead to the queen.

Nothing was left then in the North hand but diamonds, four of them. On two of them East discarded two clubs and South threw his good ace and ten of spades. On the third diamond East had to trump. South overtrumped and captured the queen of hearts with the king for the last trick.

Rooney had to be careful lest he be compelled to lead away from his trumps into East's.

4-H Club News

The Senior Girls 4-H Camp, the first of six 4-H camps, was held at the Y. M. C. A. Camp at Glencliff on May 31, June 1 and 2, with an attendance of 40 members and a staff of eight leaders.

The young women in attendance at this camp received instruction in Child Guidance. Mrs. Edgar Clarke, a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College and county leader in child guidance, was the principal instructor. Mrs. Clarke had classes in "Books and Stories for Children", "Toys and Scrap Books in a Child's Life" and "Teaching Children in Sunday School." Each girl had an opportunity to have individual conferences with Mrs. Clarke on their special problems. Mrs. Clarke also led a panel discussion, "Hereditary and Personality."

The girls were also instructed in how to bathe and care for a baby, this period was in charge of Mrs. Clarke and Miss Natalie Hookey.

Mrs. Fred Bond, acting county Home Bureau agent, instructed the members in making toys which were suitable for young children. These toys consisted of boats, trains, peg boards, blocks and scrap books.

A period in music appreciation was led by Lee Taylor and Bernard Joy. Folk Songs of Many Lands was the topic of this period. Among the songs discussed and sung were: Minstrel's Song and Brahms' Lullaby from Germany; Morning Comes Early from Czechoslovakia; Volga Boatmen's Song from Russia; Galway Piper from Ireland; Good Evening from Denmark; Holdrida from Switzerland; Viennese Lullaby from Austria; The Keeper from England and the Prayer of Thanksgiving from Holland.

Mr. Taylor in the period for music appreciation for children, illustrated and discussed the importance of rhythm, melody and song in teaching music to children.

Lee Taylor, a Red Cross Life Saver, was in charge of swimming and the waterfront. Saturday afternoon a short athletic carnival was held with each tribe participating in swimming events, dashes, baseball throwing and broad jumps.

Dr. Charles and Dr. Elizabeth Parsons of Kingston and Dr. Rachael Holloway, Kerhonkson, assisted by Miss Hookey gave the campers physical examinations on Friday evening.

At the Saturday night supper the guests of the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Lewis of Kingston. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lewis gave short talks describing life in Foreign Lands. Mrs. Lewis told of her experiences in Scotland, England and Newfoundland, and Mr. Lewis of an experience in Brazil.

The campers were divided into five Indian tribes: The Shenandoahs with Gladys Klotke of Flatbush as their chief; the Hiawathas with Ruth Hotelling of Creek Locks as chief; the Mohawks with Helen West of Rosendale as chief; the Iroquois with Lugarda Freer of Maple Hill as chief, and the Cherokees with Virginia Markie of Creek Locks as chief. Each tribe presented a program at the camp fire on Saturday evening.

Cabin leaders were Mrs. Henry Mollenhauer of Rosendale, Mrs. Jacob Freer of Maple Hill, Miss Sarah Boice, Lake Katrine; Miss Ethel Eckert, Rifton; Miss Marjorie Morehouse, Lake Katrine.

The camp staff included Bernard Joy, camp director; Lee Taylor, assistant director and life saver; Mrs. Edgar Clarke and Mrs. Fred Bond, instructors; Miss Natalie Hookey, camp nurse; Mrs. Bernard Joy and Mrs. William Limbacher, camp dietitian and chef; Margaret Gippert, camp secretary and treasurer, and Howard Limbacher, camp helper.

Campers not previously mentioned who attended the camp were: Rose Harris, Edith DeWitt, Betty Purdy, Sylvia C. Goldwasser, Anna Garovich and Louise Rossler, Rosendale; Joyce and Fanny Sears and Mary Conklin of Milton; Grace Yunker, Dorothy Calkins, Carrie Brodsky, Maple Hill; Kathryn Kozowski, Carolyn Ryder, Julia Kostuk, Mildred Davis, Florence Pothmont, Virginia Edinger, of Flatbush; Gertrude Schaffner and Vivian Boice, Lake Katrine; Mary Herring, Helen Churchill and Mabel Story of Ulster Park; Kathryn Wood, Helen Marx, Thelma Durling, Marion Rider and Esther Kish, South Flatbush; Harriett DeForce, Jane Brown and Eleanor Adickes, Tilton, and Kaarin Terro, Rifton.

Cashin School of Dancing Revue

The Cashin School of Dancing will present 60 of Kingston's own "Kutie Kids" in a gala revue at the Broadway Theatre June 12 and 13. Scenes presented will afford the pupils of the Cashin School an excellent opportunity of displaying their talents in a varied program of colorful dances including ballet, tap, toe, acrobatic, Spanish and ballroom dancing. The opening number "Steppin' Out" will feature Miss Jane Hall in a fast tap with a chorus of 12 pupils. "A Romantic Ballet" will open with Mrs. Jessie Wolfersteig and Donald Clark singing "We Fell in Love While Dancing" and Miss Muriel Gratton and Roger Eastman doing a ballroom waltz. Janet Schultz and Jimmie Roe follow with a miniature ballroom waltz. There are five group numbers in this scene, all in very colorful and effective costumes. "A Winter Wonderland" features again Mrs. Wolfersteig and Mr. Clark singing and solo dances by Leola Saddlemyre and Muriel Gratton and two groups, a "Skaters Waltz" and "The Sleigh Party." "A Symphony of Mother Goose" will display a glittering pageant of gay and colorful dances. Little Miss Janice Denike will do a solo tap on toe. The group numbers include The Mother Goose Parade, Giddy-up Little Rockin Horse, Jack and Jill, Mickey and Minnie Mouse and a grand finale of the entire school. Tickets may be obtained from members of the cast or P. T. A. No. 7 school. There will also be a feature picture in conjunction with the revue.

At last there are no men in blue marching in Memorial Day parades. From that, we can figure out the marching time of the men in khaki.

Changes Urged in Bank Bill

Business Men and Bankers Agree in Objecting to Political Control Over Banks.

AMENDMENTS ARE SUGGESTED

Political Domination of Federal Reserve Board Declared to Be Undesirable for Depositors as Well as Their Banks.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Business men and bankers alike who have appeared before committees of Congress to present views regarding the Banking Act of 1935 have found common cause for criticism in those provisions which they agree would create the means for undesirable political control over the Federal Reserve System and thereby over individual banks throughout the United States. They have made the point that this undesirable condition would affect depositors in banks even more than the banks themselves.

This view has been stressed in criticisms by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and the question of partisan control over banking was the central theme of a statement presented by R. S. Hecht, President of the American Bankers Association, who appeared before the Senate Sub-Committee on Banking and Currency hearings here. Mr. Hecht declared that his organization is actuated by a desire to be helpful to Congress "in enacting effective and workable banking legislation in the interests of all our people." He said in part:

"If it is finally decided that it is necessary to carry this legislation through at this session, we are strongly of the opinion that special care should be taken to keep our credit control and banking mechanism free from any sort of political considerations."

"In making this statement I do not wish to appear to question the propriety of the Government's exerting a certain amount of control over banking operations so far as they affect the nation's currency and general monetary policy. Nor do we object to broad powers of supervision over the operation of our banking institutions because of the semi-public responsibilities they carry. But when it comes to such matters as the granting of credit and the making of investments by our banks, these are questions of business policies that surely should not be under the sole control of a board so constituted as to be dependent upon partisan or political considerations under any administration."

The Basis of Sound Credit

"The real conditions that create the necessity for the expansion or contraction of credit arise from the needs of agriculture, industry and trade themselves, wholly independent of the administrative policies of the party which happens to be in power. We feel that the financial requirements of the nation's business constitute a continuing economic process that is not related to political changes. The fundamental principles of sound credit do not vary with variations in public thought. All experience teaches that the quality of credit is sound only so long as it is based purely on the requirements of sound business. It is not sound when any other considerations or motives enter into its composition."

"The Banking Act would centralize in the Federal Reserve Board at Washington means aimed to control the supply of money in the country, which term includes the sum total of currency in circulation and demand deposits in the banks which become current through checks. The powers which it is proposed to give the Board are intended to enable it to influence the quantity of this deposit money through open market operations, the discount rate and reserve requirements."

The Need for Independence

"That is the reason why we are so strongly in favor of making the Federal Reserve Board a body of such independence and prestige that it would be definitely removed from all political thought, influence and dictation. Its members should be free to study and to act in accordance with the needs and conditions of agriculture, industry and trade. The policies of the board should have no reference to the politics or the changes in politics of the national administration."

"In our studies of the bank bill, we have been strongly impressed with the fact that it would set up a situation under which the Federal Reserve Board and its policies might be subject to control from the political administration of the country. In saying this I do not charge that it is the intention of the present administration to bring about any undue control over the nation's banking mechanism. The point is that if the bill passed as now proposed, opportunity for control would be there for the use of the present or whatever future administration might be in power.

"Our criticisms of the bill are not aimed, therefore, at the motives of the present administration, but they are wholly impersonal and non-political and are aimed entirely at the basic principles involved."

Desirable Changes Proposed

Careful study by his organization, Mr. Hecht said, had resulted in a number of suggestions for constructive revisions in the bill which he submitted to Congress. On the other hand, he declared that many of the changes proposed by the act in existing laws "are posed by the act in existing laws "are of a constructive nature and should have the support of bankers. If the method of appointment and the tenure of office of the members of the Federal Reserve Board, in whose hands it is planned to concentrate greater power than ever before, could be so altered as to insure, as far as possible, the absolute independence of the Board from partisan or political considerations," he added:

Supreme Court of Banking
"Since the passage of the Federal Reserve Act over 30 years ago, opinion in Congress and among bankers has been striving towards the ideal of making the Federal Reserve Board a body of such independence and prestige that it might be described as the Supreme Court of Finance and Banking. We believe there is greater need now than ever before for realizing this ideal."

Mr. Hecht emphasized that it is "the supreme desire of the banking fraternity to be helpful and constructive in making suggestions in connection with this pending legislation. The changes we are urging are we believe essential to the continued independence of the Federal Reserve System."

"We have made it clear that we do not object to a measure of public control in the national interest for proper coordination of our manifold credit operations," he said, "and we do not believe the sponsors of the legislation desire any political domination over these activities through our Federal Reserve System."

"Under such circumstances we feel that our recommendations should be favorably acted upon because they would enable the reconstructed Federal Reserve Board to function freely as a nonpolitical body actuated only by the dictates of sound financial and economic policies conceived in the interest of all of our people."

"The adoption of our suggestions would both place operations of the Federal Reserve System wholly and distinctly apart from the fluctuations and vicissitudes of political conditions and free from undue influence by banking opinion only. Such a solution would thus have a stabilizing and confidence inspiring effect on the entire business situation."

Simplification of Bank Checks

New York.—In a bulletin issued by the Bank Management Commission of the American Bankers Association, plans are described for carrying on the simplification of bank checks, notes, drafts and similar instruments in respect to size and uniformity of arrangement of subject matter.

Detailed recommendations for this end were formulated by the association about two years ago, the bulletin says, and promulgated by the United States Department of Commerce among banks, business houses using large numbers of checks, commercial stations and billholders. As a result about 85 per cent adherence to the recommendations was brought about. The present bulletin, which describes the standard specifications in full, is issued to maintain this high level of adherence to the recommendations.

Banks Rapidly Reduce Debt

Although the sum of $1,000,000,000 has been advanced to banks and trust companies by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation since it began operations in February, 1932, down to April 30, 1935, these institutions have repaid so less than $1,340,000,000, or more than 75%. This rate of repayment is reported as being considerably in excess of that made by any other type of borrower.

Loans were authorized by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to 7,800 banks and trust companies in an aggregate amount of $2,350,000,000, but of this sum $145,000,000 was withdrawn or cancelled and $100,000,000 has not yet been taken out by the borrowers.

National Bank Notes

Changes in our money on the scale of about $400,000,000 are now going on through the retirement of national bank notes. This is reflected in increasing deposits in the Treasury of United States to replace bonds held against outstanding notes which will require some time for withdrawal from circulation.

The change in the currency will require a considerable shift of bank funds in many cases, but it is doubtful if a large volume of currency has ever been retired and replaced in any country with so little disturbance.

halled the advent of the United States to membership in the organization and welcomed the American delegation "headed by a woman of great ability, Miss Grace Abbott."

ANNUAL MEETING OF FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

Headquarters of The Christian Science Publishing Society

Boston, Mass., June 3.—A call to renewed activity in the daily application of Christian Science was issued today at the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, by The Christian Science Board of Directors.

Church officers in their reports divulged marked growth of the movement throughout the world, and increased demand for the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, discoverer and founder of Christian Science.

George Wendell Adams, speaking as chairman of the board of directors, stressed the need for interest not only in problems of individuals, but also in the general welfare of the world. Truth and love hold guard over the whole world as well as over the minutest occupant of it," the directors said.

The election of A. Barry Bacon as the new president of The Mother Church was announced. Mr. Bacon succeeds Dr. John M. Brewer, associate professor at the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

New readers elected to serve in The Mother Church for the next three years are Ralph B. Schofield and Miss Florence Siever Middaugh. Edward L. Ripley and Ezra W. Palmer, both of Brookline, Mass., were re-elected treasurer and clerk of the church, respectively.

The fruits of Christian Science in healing all manner of disease and disorder, was attested in selected testimonials read by Mrs. Marjorie C. Mulick, of Detroit, Michigan. Among some of the healings reported were pernicious anemia, epilepsy, mental instability, rheumatoid arthritis, atrophied limbs, defective eyesight and distressing stoppage of speech.

MODENA

Modena, June 4.—The Modena A. C. Baseball team went to Walkkill Friday night and played a twilight game with the Walkkill Legionnaires. The game was called in the first half of the fourth inning on account of darkness and the score at that time was 10-2.

The barn dance held at Edward Hartney's Saturday evening was the most successful dance of the season, and was under the auspices of the Sullivan-Shafer Post of the American Legion. The spacious floor was not large enough to accommodate the mass of dancers present, at one time. Hill-Billies Orchestra furnished music for dancing.

Many local people visited Orange Lake Park last week. The trustees of the Modena Methodist Church held a meeting after church services Sunday when discussions regarding the erection of a new parsonage were underway. A meeting will be called later to further plans for the proposed building, and decisions reached will be announced next Sunday by the Rev. A. Vradenburg, pastor of the church.

The Modena baseball team defeated the Highland Dodgers in a game on the Modena field Sunday afternoon when the score of 21-9 was made. Paltridge pitched for the A. C.'s and Rinehart was catcher. Jack Dempsey acted as umpire.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Modena Methodist Church meets Thursday afternoon, June 6, at the Memorial Hall. Mrs. Ralph Tucker is hostess. Plans will be completed for the supper to be held in connection with the reception to the Rev. and Mrs. Vradenburg, June 6, the Modena Fire Department meets at the firehouse.

Saturday evening, June 8, another barn dance at Edward Hartney's place, south of Modena village.

Sunday, June 9, annual Children's Day exercises in the Modena Methodist Church.

Mrs. A. D. Wacker, Mrs. Ransel and Miss Glendene Wacker were visitors in Kingston Friday.

Mrs. Cornelia Taylor and Mrs. Myron Shultz were visitors in Kingston Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Weiser, the former having charge of the Walkkill-Gardner U. S. mail route, are occupying an apartment in the Black house, south of Modena village, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Ward Black and family.

Mrs. Margaret Carroll and daughters, Margaret and Mary, were out-of-town visitors Friday.

Leon Chambers was a visitor in Graham Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Stoen of Kingston were visitors of Mrs. Anna Miller and son, Frank, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Brien of Valley Falls, were visitors in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Doolittle and daughters were visitors in Florida, N. Y., Sunday.

Mrs. Warren Dean and daughter of Walkkill were callers on Mrs. Myron Shultz Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Cornelia Taylor and Mrs. Myron Shultz were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Orrville Seymour Sunday evening.

Members of the Board of Lectureship carried Christian Science messages to the four corners of the globe, it was disclosed at the meeting. They lectured in the British Isles, Continental Europe and Scandinavia, Australia, Hawaii and the Orient, Africa, Bermuda and the West Indies, Mexico and the Canal Zone, the United States, Canada and Alaska.

Roland R. Harrison, manager of The Christian Science Publishing Society, reported a distinct improvement in the quality of articles submitted for publication in the religious periodicals, attributable, he said, to greater spiritual progress in the field.

Originally the main duty of the committees on publication, as set forth in the church manual, was the correction of impositions on the public in regard to Christian Science.

Mr. Norwood added that "Christian Science is now so well known that published misstatements calling for corrections are comparatively few. And that reports of our Lesson Sermons in the Christian Science Quarterly are each week reaching millions of people through newspapers, including four metropolitan dailies of New York city."

The addition of 73 new branches of The Mother Church, 47 in North America, one in South America, 17 in Europe, two in Asia, two in Africa and four in Australia, were listed by Miss Rosemond Wright, manager of the department of branches and practitioners.

Approximately 6000 persons, representing but a fraction of the total membership of the Mother Church, crowded the great auditorium to the third gallery, overflowing into the original edifice adjoining.

Mme. LeBrun Enjoying Wonders of Manhattan

New York, June 4 (AP).—The record-breaking liner Normandie rested in the Hudson's oily swell today amid preparations for a return trip while her No. 1 passenger, France's petite first lady, got acquainted with America.

Provisioning of the Normandie's huge kitchens and restoring of paint scraped from her side when she was warped in at the end of her maiden voyage yesterday occupied the crew.

The sights on a first trip to the United States occupied chic, dark-haired Mme. Albert LeBrun, wife of the president of France.

"A fairy city," Mme. LeBrun said of New York before leaving today for an official visit to Washington. She will return here tomorrow evening and will board the Normandie for the return voyage Friday.

Like many other sightseers Mme. LeBrun—not long after her arrival yesterday in Manhattan—was whisked to the 102nd floor of the Empire State Building where former Governor Alfred E. Smith, in checked suit and lavender shirt, showed her the wonders below and afar.

She also had watched the looming skyline from the ship's rail. "And that is Brooklyn Bridge," she said. Lower Manhattan's skyscrapers were "miniatures" to her.

"American gangsters?" Someone asked her if she was afraid. "Pas de tout," she shrugged cheerfully. "Not at all."

Well, if they are like Mrs. James Roosevelt, mother of the President, whom she met in France, they must be indeed "delicious."

Mme. LeBrun, who christened the Normandie, was honored last night at a dinner attended by French Ambassador Andre de Laboulaye and Mme. Laboulaye. She was presented with a silver cigarette box by Mayor F. H. LaGuardia.

"It contains cigarettes now," the mayor told her, "but you may use it for handkerchiefs if you wish."

Awarded Degree
Herbert F. Small, son of the late Herbert F. Small of Kerkira, was awarded the degree of bachelor of science in electrical engineering at commencement exercises of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge, Mass., this morning.

Ladies' Aid Meeting
The June meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Trinity M. E. Church will be held in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon of this week at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Shultz were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Orrville Seymour Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Doolittle and daughters were visitors in Florida, N. Y., Sunday.

Mrs. Warren Dean and daughter of Walkkill were callers on Mrs. Myron Shultz Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Cornelia Taylor and Mrs. Myron Shultz were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Orrville Seymour Sunday evening.

New Paltz Normal School Activities

The annual Daisy Day tea was held at the Clionian Sorority House Tuesday. Members of the faculty, alumni, guests of the members and the present members of the sorority were present. The members wore white with corsages of daisies. The decorations were carried out in the daisy motif.

Emory Jacobs, representing the social science department, Benjamin H. Matteson, history, and Miss Barbara Pfaff and Miss Rebecca McKenna left at noon on Friday to meet with other committees from various Normal Schools of the state at Syracuse to discuss curriculum revision.

Last Friday 10 New Paltz girls who are active in sports accompanied Miss Barbara Andrews and Mrs. Howard Hoffman to Cortland Normal School for a week-end of competitive activities. There were girls also present from Genesee and Oswego. Those representing New Paltz were: Eva Lund, Arlyne Depew, Ruth Seward, Ruth Van Valen, Elizabeth Wiebek, Wilhemina Hines, Mary Donaghy, Janet Kohl, Fernie Sini and Ethel Chiron.

The Delphic and Tri Kappa fraternities will cooperate next year in the sponsoring of an inter-fraternity dance. This device will be the first of its kind ever held in New Paltz and will take place some time in December.

In chapel on Tuesday an all-student amateur hour was the feature. Among those taking part were: Irene Redmond, Phil Shiffrin, Alice Gardner, Claire Westover, Callie Urso, Estelle Reene, "The Clio Girls", Dotty Smith and "The Boys", who supplied the music. Frank Cuccia acted as leader and Howard Hoffman gave a medley of familiar airs.

Peg Forrestal, class of 1934, has accepted a position for next year in the primary grades at Wappingers Falls.

Mrs. Janet Hopkins Barnes, class of 1933, visited in New Paltz this week-end.

Martha Brennan has received a position in the public schools of Middletown, N. Y.

The Zeta Chapter of Kappa Kappa Kappa, national honorary fraternity, was formally installed Sunday, May 26. A banquet was given at the New Paltz Hotel after which a picture was taken of the group numbering 30 on the school campus.

The initiation followed with Grand President Paul Ambrosio of Cortland, Grand Vice President Everett Koehler and Grand Librarian Fred Truesch both of Buffalo and all of the grand council Tri Kappa taking charge of the installation. Those of the New Paltz Normal faculty who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Matteson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mosher, Dr. and Mrs. Roland G. Will, Miss Grace McArthur and Mrs. Irene Compton. Dr. Will and Mrs. Compton are the faculty advisers to this new men's organization.

Miss McArthur and Mr. Matteson gave short talks and wished success to the fraternity. Mr. Matteson also urged the men to realize the necessity that exists for them to do something for the good of the school and themselves. The men of the school who were installed were: David Jacobson, Charles Di Cesare, Robert Corliss, William Charanoff, Milton Cohen, Norman Grusky, Irving Fersar, Alfred Demarest, Dominick Lazzaro, Franklin Branley, Oliver Murray, Edward Doolan, Marshall Fairlee, Earl Wright, Paul Lehr, Enzo Politi, Harold Darling and Sidney Binder.

The annual faculty contribution to the community chest was recently made and totaled $75. This donation was by faculty members of the Normal School and those of the Vandenberg School of Practice. Those of the pupils of the practice school, Marie Lamber of the 1935 class, now of Peekskill, Mrs. Margaret Reed Sullivan of Montgomery, class of 1930, and Helen Colyer, class of 1934, spent the week-end at the Agassian Sorority house.

Ms. Alice D. Hawkins of the Practice School will teach next year in Stonybrook, L. I.

RIFTON
Rifton, June 4.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will hold its June meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul Bailey instead of at the home of Mrs. Harry Eckert, as previously stated. The meeting will take place Wednesday evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock. It is earnestly requested that all members be present to discuss final plans for the strawberry festival to be held on June 14.

Miss Harriet Tigar is spending a few days at her home here.

Mrs. Richard Terpening entertained her sister and family of Amsterdam on Memorial Day.

David Ashcroft spent the week-end at his home here.

The friends and neighbors of Graham Davis are glad to learn he is improving after his recent illness.

Three Cases Before Judge Culloton Today

While the radio car was passing through Abel street last night the officers noticed the form of a man lying under the Roadout Creek Bridge. They investigated and found John Holloway, a negro, sound asleep, and placed him under arrest, after they awoke him, on a charge of disorderly conduct in having no visible means of support. This morning in police court Holloway promised to return to Newburgh at once if allowed to go. Judge Culloton suspended sentence on him.

Monday night the police received a telephone call that there was a drunken man driving an automobile on West O'Reilly street. An alarm was broadcast and the radio car that picked it up hurried to the scene. When the car arrived the officers allege they found that Roy Herring of Ulster Park had alighted from the car which was parked, and they placed him under arrest on a charge of public intoxication. This morning Herring was fined $5 by Judge Culloton.

Frederick E. Ziegler of Woodstock was arrested on Monday on three charges, one of parking his car in a restricted zone on Fair street extension, another of parking on the left side of the curb and the third of parking with the rear wheels more than 6 inches from the curb. He explained he had been accustomed to parking his car there for years, and did not intentionally violate any city ordinance. He was given a suspended sentence on the parking in the restricted zone, and on the other two charges was fined $2 each.

Knife Slaying Case Puzzles Pacific Coast

Los Angeles, June 4 (AP).—Linking the two deaths as a murder and suicide, detectives searching for the butcher knife slayer of an attractive young woman identified as Dolores Dufae, 26, found the body of George Booth, 25, hanging from a tree near his home.

Police found a note at Booth's home which announced he was "going to meet my maker."

"I have just killed Dolores after she told me her right name," it added.

The young man's father summoned detectives to his home and said he heard his son come in earlier in the night and then leave. He found the note.

The body of Booth was found in a grove of trees two or three blocks away.

Detective Lieutenant Myles Ledbetter and co-investigators began attempts to learn more about the girl, whose body, stabbed six times, was discovered late last night in a clump of weeds by the roadside in a deserted section of the Pacific Palisades.

Booth's farewell note read: "Dear folks, I am going to meet my maker. I have just killed Dolores after she had told me her right name. She did not tell me her right name until I struck her with the knife. Then I stabbed her five times more."

"I'm sorry I got Arthur's car all bloody. I'm sorry I have to do this to Arthur, mother and you."

The note was signed "Amen." Young Booth was a butcher. Arthur, his brother, had loaned him his car last night. Inside the car police found a bloody, slender bladed butcher knife.

Mrs. Booth told officers her son, George, had a girl friend known to her only as Dolores Dufae. She was not sure of the spelling.

In view of the reference to the girl's "right name" officers made efforts to locate some of her acquaintances.

Her wrist watch bore the initials "J. E. E." Two passing motorists discovered the girl's body last night. A white skirt protruding out of the brush was sighted by the motorists.

ARDONIA
Ardonia, June 4.—Mrs. Alex Ront and Mrs. Dan Reilly were callers at the home of Mrs. William Doolittle Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bode were callers in Modena Thursday.

WEST SHOKAN

West Shokan, June 4.—The Rev. Arnaldo Natino addressed an attentive church congregation Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. His subject was "A Message from Cape Cod," where he was a former pastor and recent visitor at the centennial anniversary. He told of the rugged lives of Cape Cod folks and their industries, principally boat building and fishing, which proved of interest to all present. Several appropriate selections were sung by the choir, which included a pleasing soprano and alto duet by Mrs. Genevieve McLean and sister, Mrs. Mildred Allen. Miss Louise Smith presided commendably as acting organist. The Sunday School class preceded the service with Mrs. Sheppard Bell as acting superintendent. The Rev. Natino also addressed the group pleasantly. Next Sunday the services will be held at the usual hours. Sunday School at 1 o'clock and church at 2. All are welcome.

Seventeen were present at the mid-week prayer meeting held at the Baptist Church Wednesday evening. The devotional group included the Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Lockett, son, Charles, and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Bertha Thompson, superintendent of the Sunday school, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Bell, Miss Helen Thompson, Oliver Tweedy, Mrs. Frances Bell, Miss Catherine Roe, Mrs. Addie Van Demark and daughter, Freda, Miss Louise Thompson, Francis Whispell, Miss Cornelia Davis. These inspiring meetings, which have been in progress for many weeks, are to be continued into the month of June and possibly all summer. Next week Wednesday evening the service will be held at the church.

Stephen Hyatt of Kingston, nephew of Mrs. Winchell of Sunny Cliff, has secured a fine teaching position as principal of the Pine Hill school. Mr. Hyatt is a recent graduate of the New Paltz training school. His many friends extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelder and son of East Orange, N. J., enjoyed pleasantly Memorial Day and the week-end at the former's boyhood home with his mother, Mrs. Addie Kelder, at West Shokan Heights.

The Watson Hollow Inn opened Memorial Day for its 21st season and numbers of patrons enjoyed its hospitable offerings during the week-end. Other hostilities about the community sharing the holiday visitors included Bushkill Inn, Traver Hollow Inn, Burgher House, Maple Dell Farm, Idle Hour Cottage.

The owners of West Shokan Inn are painting and otherwise improving the residence and roadside stand properties before opening for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Boice entertained members of the family on Sunday including Mr. and Mrs. Donahoe and daughter of Krumville and a group from Kingston.

The West Shokan school enjoyed an extended week-end vacation due to Memorial Day.

Ralph B. Longyear with several friends from Phoenixia enjoyed a successful fishing excursion in the West Shokan waters Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Longyear of Brooklyn with Mrs. Estella Longyear of Phoenixia were callers at West Shokan Heights Saturday afternoon.

Pete Crawford, proprietor of the Olive Bridge Wayside Garage, reports a very satisfactory business period over Memorial Day and the week-end.

Saturday evening, June 8, Phoenixia Lodge, No. 154, will be hosts to the Ulster County Post Grands Association. A very enjoyable time is anticipated as the Phoenixia Odd Fellows are long famous for their unstinted hospitality. A prominent delegation from Shokan I. O. O. F. Lodge, No. 491, plans to attend.

The Olive Rebekahs will hold a birthday party Thursday evening, June 6, celebrating the fifth anniversary of the founding of Olive Lodge, No. 470. The festive occasion will follow the business session. The committee has planned a pleasing program. The noble grand, Francis Ayers, requests a 100 per cent attendance of the members if possible. Visiting Rebekahs will be accorded a fraternal welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spencer and family of Bridgeport, Conn., motored here for the week-end, spent at their North boulevard bungalow. Mr. Spencer is a son of T. E. Spencer, the well known fisherman who died recently. The Spencers were accompanied by Mrs. Minnie Smith, who is spending a week at her Main street property, making arrangements for the season's rental.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barber of Main street entertained week-end visitors from out of town.

The Odd Fellows' annual Memorial service, conducted jointly by Shokan I. O. O. F. and Olive Rebekah Lodges, will be held Sunday evening, June 23, at Olive Bridge M. E. Church. The Rev. John Neander of Saugerties has been secured by the I. O. O. F. committee as speaker.

A skimmington and roiling house warming was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barringer of Sameonville, who were recently married. The bride is the former Miss Edna Davis and the bridegroom a well known farmer of Palentown vicinity.

Genial Golden Van Benachoten of Hemlock Knoll, North Boulevard, was a week-end caller on Saturday.

Sunday visitors at Martin J. Every's at Traver Hollow included Charles Brunt of Palentown Heights, Judge Fred Simpson of Accord and a relative, Mrs. Jesse Boice, Wilson Boice and Miss Helene M. Wieshaupt of Kingston.

Donald Bishop and college friend, Louis Wilson, returned to Oneonta Sunday afternoon after spending the week-end here enjoyably.

Miss Catharine Schatzel of Kingston spent Saturday afternoon and evening at the home of her friend, Miss Edna Gessner, at Olive Bridge. They were former classmates in training at the Benedictine Hospital.

An automobile driven by a city party came to grief Saturday evening when attempting to negotiate the sharp turn at the foot of the Sunny Cliff hill on the Sameonville road, at evidently a too high rate of speed. No one was injured but some little time was required to free the machine from its wedged position sideways against a maple tree. Martin J. Every and brother, Edward, of Traver Hollow stopped and offered assistance in passing. Sturdy Judge Winchell also obligingly came to the rescue.

Robert Thompson, chief clerk of the Butler, N. J., CCC Camp, came home for the week-end.

Hundreds of relatives and friends came to the Tongore cemeteries over Memorial Day and paid homage to their loved ones buried there. Both the old and new cemeteries, newly mown and with the flower adorned graves and American Legion flags fluttering over the soldier dead, presented a most serene and well kept appearance. And this despite the dry weather. Deserving credit belongs the energetic superintendent, Harlowe McLean.

Harry Kestor, who has been driving the Coddington milk hauling route for the past few months, made his last trip Sunday. Smiling Wilson Terwilliger, who formerly drove the route for several years, is back on the old job again.

Camp Happyland Has A Fine New Roadway

Due to Efforts of Supervisor Myers of the Third Ward and 36 Men from Ulster County Highway Department.

Early Monday morning a gang of determined looking men and a quantity of road building machines appeared on the scene at Camp Happyland, just off Clifton avenue, and set to work building an improved road from Clifton avenue up to the Ulster county health camp and by nightfall the old bumpy dirt road had been replaced with a smooth crushed stone roadway which wound up the hill and circled the camp buildings on the elevation overlooking the city and Catskill mountains.

Probably never in the history of road building has a roadway been laid more rapidly and with such a determined effort. The reason for this was the fact that the roadway was built by 36 men from the Ulster County Highway Department under the direction of County Superintendent James F. Loughran and his foreman who organized a "bee" for the purpose and gave their services gratis. In years gone by "bees" for house-raising and for barn-raising and for various other big jobs were common but of late this neighborly method of doing things has passed out. But it remained for the highway department men to revive the custom in Kingston. All of the men worked throughout the day and far over the customary quitting time in order to complete the roadway so that Camp Happyland might have a decent roadway this summer when about 100 undernourished children who have been subjected to contact with tuberculosis patients will be cared for in the camp. These little children are recommended to the camp by the town or city nurse and last year 98 children were cared for. In July 48 boys were at the camp and in August 48 girls were cared for and all of this work is being done from the proceeds of the Christmas Red Cross seals, aided by a few public spirited citizens.

Since Camp Happyland was taken over by the Ulster County Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health of which the Hon. Joseph M. Fowler is president and Katherine Murphy, county nurse, there has not been any too much money to spend and consequently the roadway remained a bumpy dirt road.

At a recent meeting of the board of supervisors a resolution was offered by Herbert Myers, supervisor from the Third ward, and unanimously adopted, authorizing the use of county highway machinery to be used in constructing the roadway. This resolution made available the equipment of County Superintendent of Highways James F. Loughran and also crushed stone from the county quarry but the item of labor was also a big thing. So when the regular highway organization volunteered to give its services this problem of labor was quickly solved.

When the employees of the department offered to donate their services gratis for the cause there was strife between some of the inside employees as to how they might help and this was quickly settled by several of them assuming another role. The laborers, foremen, mechanics at the garage and the chauffeurs all donated their services. The mechanics at the garage consented to do their part by driving trucks and doing other jobs. So much enthusiasm was shown that the entire roadway, and it is quite a stretch, had been graded, widened out at the turns, culverts put in and topdressed before the men quit for the night. In place of the old dusty dirt roadway there is now a hard surfaced roadway leading to the camp.

The old roadway had become badly washed out and was in bad condition. The new roadway is a stone base street covered with stone dust and rolled hard and alongside are ditches and culverts to carry off the water. In one place a rock had to be blasted in order to widen out the road and provide proper drainage.

Today Camp Happyland has a fine new roadway due to the effort of Supervisor Herbert Myers of the Third ward and the following men who so generously donated their services to the cause:

Benjamin Baldwin, Clifton avenue; John Ham, Sr., High Falls; Eugene Carl, 554 Albany avenue; John Gibbons, High Falls; Abel Ellsworth, Catskill avenue; John Acker, East Kingston; Harry Baldwin, Phoenixia; Fritz Barthel, West Hurley; William Burger, 187 Elmendorf street; Louis Breithaupt, 25 Park street; Irving Brown, 63 Wrentham street; Thomas Callahan, 308 Washington avenue; Floyd DeGraw, Kysickia; Louis De Pew, Sundown; Lewis Dyer, High Falls; Harry Ennist, 67 Stephan street; Thomas Edwards, 32 Meadow street; John Ham, Jr., High Falls; Augustus Houghaling, Port Ewen; Archie Huettel, Lucas avenue; John Jansen, Marbletown; Thomas Kolb, Mt. Marion; Clark Krum, 166 Clifton avenue; James E. Leahy, Hurley; James B. Leahy, 29 Lafayette avenue; George Leonard, Wittenberg; Samuel Lynch, 313 Haabrouck avenue; William Lifer, Elmendorf street; Gustave Leivre, Sundown; Edwin Myers, Meade street; Sidney Myers, Rifton; Townsend Osterhoudt, Accord; Fred Weldeman, Lucas avenue; Calvin Wyant, Wrentham street; Granville Wood, Kripplush; Woodrow Whitmore, Clifton avenue.

Bank Robber Reported Arrested in Chicago

Frank Barrett, one of the men sought in connection with the disposition of bonds taken during the hold-up of the New Paltz bank last January, has been reported as under arrest in Chicago. Since the robbery of the bank in which some $50,000 in bonds were taken several arrests have been made of persons who attempted to pass bonds. Chicago has been one center about which much of the activity has taken place although bonds have been recovered in other places.

District Attorney Clegg B. Murray has received an definite notification from the Chicago officials in regard to the arrest of Barrett.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By CLAUDE E. JACOB

New York, June 4 (AP)—A quiet but persistent upward movement marked trading in today's stock market.

Optimistic buyers attempted to anticipate good news from the White House on a further revival of the recovery program and thus potential sellers were inclined to cling to the sidelines while awaiting Washington advices. Strength was exhibited by rails, oils, chemicals, tobaccos and scattered specialties.

Shares of Cuban-American Sugar Preferred recovered 5 points and others, up fractionally to around 2, included U. S. Steel Common and Preferred, Columbia Gas, Allied Chemical, du Pont, Coughlin, Philip Morris, Liggett & Myers, "B" American Tobacco, "B" Chrysler, General Motors, Johns-Manville, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Standard Oil of New Jersey and California, Seaboard Oil and American Crystal Sugar common and Preferred. The utilities and metals were hesitant.

Tuberculosis Essay Prizes Distributed

Those who listened to and were able to hear the broadcast of the prize essays on "How We Fight Tuberculosis with Modern Weapons," written by two high school students of Ulster county, over WGY on May 29, were delighted not only with the essays that the young people read but with the exceptionally fine manner in which they made the broadcast. Judge Joseph M. Fowler, president of the Ulster county committee on tuberculosis, and Dr. Holcomb, chairman of the prize essay committee, motored Master Fred Ritcher of Wallkill, winner of the first prize of $10 and Miss Olga Schiele of Kingston, winner of the second prize of $5 to Schenectady on the afternoon of the broadcast. From all reports it is difficult to tell who had the best and happiest time, the judge and the doctor or the two young prize winners. Judge Fowler in introducing the essayists gave a very concise sketch of the beginning of the tuberculosis work in Ulster county; of the Christmas Seal sales; of Ulster county having the first county hospital in the state; and of the work of the tuberculosis committee in which the late Dr. Mary Gage-Day took such an active part and held such an important place in all of the tuberculosis work of the county and the new hospital. After the broadcast of the essays, Dr. Holcomb told in a few words of the tuberculosis testing of pupils in our schools, one of the biggest tuberculosis preventive activities so far inaugurated.

After the broadcast the two young guests of honor were taken to the DeWitt Clinton Hotel for dinner and then for the ride home. While it was a gala day for them it was a day full of portent for further tuberculosis prevention and cure wherever the voices of the young people were heard as was noted in the letter written by Judge Fowler, president of the tuberculosis committee, to the prize winners, accompanying their checks, in which he well said, "Your paper showed a comprehensive knowledge of the subject and has been of inestimable value in the broadcast, especially of the fight being waged in Ulster county by the Christmas seals."

New Navy Demanded
London, June 4 (AP)—Well-informed naval quarters said today that a new dread navy of 499,000 tons is demanded by Adolf Hitler's delegation to the Anglo-German naval talks. It was understood that the construction was formally opened, that the British delegation seeks to pare down this tonnage in view of the fact that England's fleet in home waters will total only 351,000 tons, even with the increases contemplated after the jubilee review of the fleet next month.

A Part of Rumana
(Copyright, 1935, by Associated Press) Chisinau, Rumania, June 4.—King Carol today completed a five-day tour of the former Rumanian territory of Bessarabia and returned to the capital. The king's trip had been a part of his "let no other nation" tour. "Let no other nation," he said, "be so happy as to see the king of Rumania." The king's tour was a part of his "let no other nation" tour. The king's tour was a part of his "let no other nation" tour.

Death of Worker Gives Police Deep Problem

Worcester, Mass., June 4 (AP)—The death of Stephen Lisowsky, 26-year-old itinerant restaurant worker, has left unsolved one of Massachusetts' strangest medico-legal cases. Lisowsky was found in his lodging house room Saturday, unconscious from what was at first believed the deadly virus of a black widow spider he had imported from California. Several notes indicated an intention of committing suicide, and the absence of all poisonous agents other than the insect led officials to believe Lisowsky had ended his life by that fantastic means.

He was taken to Worcester City Hospital, and upon learning that a box of sleeping tablets had been removed from his room by a young woman, physicians discarded the spider theory and attributed his condition to an overdose of narcotic. Lisowsky died late yesterday without divulging any of the mysterious angles of the case—the why of the spider or the reason for his committing suicide. Dr. Frank H. Baker, medical examiner, said he would perform an autopsy to determine the exact cause of Lisowsky's death.

Miss Rose Castagnaro of Westbury, R. I., student nurse at City Hospital, told superintendent of detectives William P. Finnegan she went to Lisowsky's room Saturday and found him unconscious, took away a box of sleeping tablets she inadvertently had left there a day or two before.

ADIRONDACK FOLK SEEK

A MYSTERY PLANE WRECK

St. Regis Falls, N. Y., June 4 (AP)—The mystery of what fell on Cat Mountain in the Adirondacks wilderness deepened today as State Troopers prepared to send another detail into the wood for a thorough search of the area.

At least eight persons reported a plane dropped from the sky Sunday and crashed on the heavily wooded side of the mountain but searchers have been unable to find any wreckage.

Corporal W. E. Dixon of the Malone barracks of the state police said today he was "almost positive there is a plane there" and troopers will search the area until they have determined to their own satisfaction that the crash reports are false.

Yesterday 15 troopers and volunteer searchers trudged through the woods all day but were forced to give up at nightfall.

No airplanes have been reported missing and the theory was advanced yesterday that an unregistered smuggler's plane might have fallen. Smugglers in the past have flown over the northern end of the state with contraband.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS TO ## HOLD DANCE IN 4TH WARD

At the regular meeting of the Young Republican Club of the Fourth ward Monday night plans were made for a dance to be held at the club rooms, 460 Delaware avenue, Thursday night, June 20. ## 100 Families Fled

New York, June 4 (AP)—More than 100 families were forced to flee when fire broke out in a row of store rooms under construction in the Brighton Beach section of Brooklyn early today. The flames spread to two six-story apartment houses sending the occupants to the street. The houses were slightly damaged. The stores were destroyed. Firemen said several explosions were heard while the fire was at its height. Deputy Fire Marshal George P. Donovan said the blaze appeared "suspicious."

Wanting Is Issued

Albany, N. Y., June 4 (AP)—Charles A. Barnett, state commissioner of motor vehicles, today warned all persons or firms engaged in aiding in securing automobile operators licenses or registrations to obtain state licenses before July 1. A new law, Barnett said, requires such agencies to be licensed as "private service" bureaus. Licensed operators of driving schools do not need the new service license, he said.

7 Children Killed

Wilno, Poland, June 4 (AP)—A forgotten wartime shell exploded today among seven children. Two were killed instantly, three died on the way to a hospital, the other two were seriously wounded. A shepherd, 1,500 feet away, was also badly hurt.

Kitchen Shower

Stine Nisga, June 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Van Wageningen entertained the Epworth League for its regular monthly business meeting at their home on Friday evening. After the business session the league gave the hostesses who are newly weds a surprise kitchen shower. A doll very artistically dressed in crepe paper to represent a bride formed the central decoration of the table and exquisite bouquets of lilies of the valley were on either end. In the folds of the crepe paper of the bride's dress were cards on which were printed rhymes telling the hostesses where she may find a gift. Many useful gifts were received. The finding and opening of the gifts made much amusement. The guests were Miss Carol Nilsson, Miss Mary Bloom, Miss Mary and Margaret Van Wageningen, John Batten, Virgil Shaeley, Miss Dorothy Ransom, Mrs. Victor Van Wageningen, Crowell Shaeley, Roy Ransom and Ralph Sahler. A delightful evening was spent in playing games and at a late hour delicious refreshments of ice cream, punch and homemade cakes were served. The guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Van Wageningen many years of happiness.

Lepke-Eck

Ellenville, June 3.—A pretty June wedding took place at Ulster Heights on Sunday, June 2, when Miss Ruth Lydia Lepke, daughter of the late Mr.

A Woman Betrayed Bremer Kidnap

St. Paul, June 4 (P).—A woman with whom he had been keeping company betrayed Volney Davis, Barker-Karpis gangster who pleaded guilty to conspiracy in the kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker. It was learned from an authoritative source today.

Davis' arrest in Chicago brought the federal government's score in the $200,000 abduction to nine in jail. Four others were dead, five were acquitted and eight were still at large.

Following a "tip" from a Chicago girl with whom Davis was seen on several occasions after his escape at Yorkville, Ill., where he slugged a federal agent with a beer mug, government officers maintained a trip for the gangster for a week. They missed him on two occasions previous to his capture.

Davis, sweetheart of Edna Murray, "kissing bandit," who was freed of conspiracy charges in the kidnaping of the St. Paul banker and returned to a Missouri prison, had made arrangements with the girl to meet him at Austin, Ill., Chicago suburb, and authorities were informed of the proposed meeting.

Federal agents said they were convinced Davis had no connection with the kidnaping of nine-year-old George Weyerhaeuser in Tacoma, Wash. It was explained the gangster would not have been brought to St. Paul, had he had any connection with the boy's abduction, despite the pending Bremer charge.

Sentence will be pronounced on Davis in federal court Friday, with life imprisonment the possible penalty.

Boice Is Delegate To State 4-H Meeting

Pratt Boice, chairman of the Ulster County 4-H Department Board of the Farm and Home Bureau Association, was chosen as one of the two delegates to represent Eastern New York at a state-wide meeting to be held in Ithaca on July 1. He was chosen by the newly organized Eastern New York Junior Extension Federation, which met in Albany June 3. At the state meeting the Federation will probably be organized by the six delegates representing Eastern, Central and Western New York.

The Eastern New York Junior Extension Federation is composed of two representatives from the 4-H boards of the following counties: Nassau, Rockland, Orange, Ulster, Delaware, Greene, Albany, Schenectady, Washington, Rensselaer, Columbia and Dutchess. Mrs. Hugh Ferguson and Mr. Boice were the Ulster county representatives. The federation voted to hold their next meeting in Kingston on September 1. Mrs. Harriet McMichael of Schenectady county was elected as the second delegate to the state meeting in Ithaca.

"Soak the Rich" Plan Is Voiced in Congress

Washington, June 4 (P).—A demand that Congress "soak the rich" was voiced by Rep. Marcantonio (R-NY) today as a group of House members assembled to determine whether they would back proposals to rewrite the constitution.

The members, regarded as adherents of the chamber's more liberal or "left" wings, were admonished by Marcantonio to indulge in no "shadow-boxing."

"As far as a few others and myself are concerned," he said, "the only stand for as to take is for increased taxes on incomes over $5,000 and on inheritances and gifts."

"If we are just going to shadow box and come out with some half-loaf program, I'm going to bolt."

"Baloney," was his description of a suggestion by Rep. Keller (D-Ill.), liberal bloc chairman, that subcommittees be named to recommend action to meet the situation arising from the supreme court's death blow to NRA.

"The subcommittees will be meeting and Congress will be adjourning," Marcantonio amplified. "We have got to take some action now."

He is one of a number who have advocated a convention to propose amendments to the constitution. But that is too far off, he contended.

Consequently, he drafted what he calls a "soak the rich" program, levying the tax boosts. At least the other liberals are behind it, he said.

WOMAN DIED MONDAY IN GREENWOOD LAKE IN FIRE

Trapped in her second floor room by a wall of flame that burst into the sky, Mrs. Caroline Schmitz, 44, perished early Monday morning in a blaze of undetermined origin which completely destroyed Schmitz's inn at Greenwood Lake, Orange county, operated by her husband, George Schmitz, 46. Damage was estimated at about $10,000. Schmitz, who managed to make her own escape from the blazing structure, is now in Warwick Hospital with second degree burns of the face and shoulders. She will recover.

Lansdowne Assailed Again

Alabama Pitts Will Join Albany Ball Club

Star Athlete of Sing Sing Prison to Get Chance in Pro Baseball—Warden Lawes Thinks He'll Make Good.

Alabama Pitts, Sing Sing prison's star athlete, who has played against the Kingston Yellow Jacket football team, will be released on parole Thursday to join the Albany baseball team as an outfielder.

Pitts is even better at baseball than football say those who know him, including Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing. Such is Lawes' faith in the ability of the Sing Sing athlete to make good in professional baseball that he sold the idea to John J. Evers, general manager of the Albany Baseball Club as far back as last winter before the season opened.

The news that Alabama, who was christened Edwin Collins Pitts, is to be released by Sing Sing, is signed by the Albany club came from the official sources at the Capitol yesterday. Subsequently word was received that Manager Al Mammaux plans to use Alabama in the Albany outfield for the first time next Sunday in Hawkins Stadium.

An Exceptional Chance

Alabama entered Sing Sing at the age of 19, an obscure prisoner sentenced on a robbery charge growing out of a small time holdup. On the advice of a lawyer he had taken a plea and was sentenced to eight to 16 years. He is 24 now coming out to get a chance seldom if ever accorded to any convict. Pitts earned about three years off his minimum sentence for good behavior. Pitts is in good physical shape having played football, baseball, basketball, and even engaged in track sports continuously since his incarceration.

According to some, Pitts has had offers from the Brooklyn Dodgers and two other major league clubs. But Warden Lawes believes he is not ready for the big time yet in the nation's pastime. Professional football teams have sought him too, but Lawes is against him joining them, thinking he'd be used only as a box office attraction and that his participation in the grid sport would be only a "flash in the pan."

Future Looks Bright

That Alabama will make good with Albany is a certainty it is felt by Warden Lawes, who recommends him as a player never perturbed by facing the most expert pitching. He never steps away from the plate, but always steps into the ball as he takes his swing. His speed in the outfield is above par and his hitting will be too, scouts claim. His hitting will be too, scouts claim.

Mrs. Ira Ridd, mother of the famous prison athlete, would like to see him go back to the south to start over, but parole regulations will not permit. Newspaper reports of Sing Sing football games that called Pitts "the negro star" greatly disturbed his mother. She insists "He's as white as white can be."

Before he came into trouble with the law, Pitts had served in the U. S. Navy. He enlisted from Peoria, Ill., at the age of 15 years and was only slightly more than 18 when he came out of the service.

Andrew Gilday Is Named Grand Knight

Kingston Council, Knights of Columbus, held its annual election of officers Monday night and named the following for the ensuing year: Andrew Gilday, grand knight; John Byrne, deputy grand knight; Joseph Murphy, chancellor; Edward O'Reilly, recorder; John Whelan, treasurer; Matthew Cahill, advocate; Joseph Stead, warden; Maria Nolan, Jr., inside guard; Cornelius Enright, outside guard; William O'Reilly, trustee; Andrew Gilday and Robert Donnan, delegates to the 1936 convention with William Leebire and William McNeill, alternates.

A New Grievance

Rome, June 4 (P).—Italy held a new grievance against Ethiopia today—an official charge that Ethiopian attacked Italian native troops on the Eritrean border last Friday, killing 30. Official dispatches said the Italian forces had been stationed in the vicinity of Danelli to protect native dwelling in the area. The Ethiopians were said to have stolen several thousand head of cattle before withdrawing from the frontier.

Farm and Home Bureaus

1935-1936 Programs

June is the month when all Home Bureau units in the county make up their programs for the coming year. Every active unit in the county now has such a meeting scheduled at which the acting agent, Mrs. Bond, will meet with the women and help plan their 1935-1936 program in detail. Any group not organized, but desiring to take advantage of the many things offered by the Home Bureau should write into the office in Kingston at once as this is the time of the year to organize, and the agent's time is limited. Groups of 15 or more interested women may organize and receive in their own community all the benefits and instruction given by the Home Bureau.

Fair Plans

At a committee meeting of Home Bureau and Fair members the women's premium list for the Ulster County Agricultural Fair to be held August 20, 21 and 22 in the new Kingston Armory was completed. All premiums in the homemaking department have been raised this year and it is hoped that a good many exhibits will be brought in for the fair. Copies of the premium list may be had at the Home Bureau office, and will also be distributed at Home Bureau meetings held throughout the county this month.

Executive Committee Meets

The regular meeting of the Home Bureau Executive Committee will be held in the office at Kingston Wednesday, June 5, at 11 a. m. At this meeting special guests will be Miss Caroline Morton, Assistant State Leader, from Cornell, and Miss Evelyn Nance, County Home Bureau Agent, who is now on sabbatic. The purpose of this meeting is to complete county program plans and Home Bureau plans for the fair.

Flatbush Meeting

Flatbush has scheduled a program planning meeting of their local unit for Thursday, June 6, at 2:30 p. m. to be held at the home of Mrs. Alvin Palen. All women in the community interested in homemaking should be present to help formulate the unit program for 1935-1936.

In County Granges

Ulster Park

Ulster Grange, No. 969, of Ulster Park, will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday evening, June 5, at 7:30 o'clock, E. S. T. At this meeting Stone Ridge and Hurley Granges will be the guests of Ulster Grange. Their officers will preside and their lecturers will put on the program. Refreshments will be served by the entertaining Grange. A good attendance of the three Granges is desired as this is a visitation meeting and the Granges will be judged on their attendance. Members of other Granges will be welcome.

Court in Recess Until Wednesday

Again a settlement brought about an adjournment of supreme court this morning and court recessed until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. No. 894, Frank E. Achley against Harold H. and Hirschell Mayes, a negligence action, was moved for trial but before the selection of a jury was commenced the action was settled. The case grew out of an automobile collision on Broadway and O'Neill street.

Indications now are that the grand jury in attendance at this term of court will report to Justice Schrick next Monday at 2 o'clock. At present the grand jury is in session investigating several cases. District Attorney Murray is withholding the final report of the grand jury until just before the term is adjourned in order that as many late cases as possible may be cleared up before the summer recess.

Il Duce Has Black Eye

Rome, June 4 (P).—Benito Mussolini, Italy's black-shirted premier, has a black eye. To sympathetic inquirers, Il Duce explained today his disfigurement was the result of being knocked from his horse by a low-hanging branch while taking his daily canter yesterday.

Williams Receives His College Degree

George S. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Williams of 23 Abruzzo street, received his degree of Doctor of Osteopathy at the forty-third commencement exercises at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy in Philadelphia on June 1. Dr. Williams is a graduate of the Kingston High School and also a student of Grove City College in Grove City, Penna. He also has an honorary degree in the Bacteriological Society.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, and his brother, Earl Williams, and Miss M. F. Murdock of Abruzzo street, and Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Ferguson of Newburgh, motored to Philadelphia to attend the graduation exercises.

ERS IN NEED OF GARDEN TOOLS AND BABY CARRIAGE

At the local emergency relief bureau today it was stated that those who desire to donate used rakes and hoes for the men who have relief gardens could get in touch with the ERB and the articles would be called for. There are also several families who are in need of baby carriages and chairs for the house. Anyone wishing to donate these articles may communicate with the ERB and they will be called for.

General Synod of Reformed Church Not To Be Held This Year

The 125th session of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America is scheduled to meet at Rochester Thursday, June 6. However, because of the need of economy, the various denominational bodies that meet only once in two years regularly and there is a sentiment for a biennial session of Synod. No one knows how strong it is but it will undoubtedly come up next year at Rochester.

On the appointed day, June 6, the Rev. John Wesseling of Pella, Iowa, president of Synod, will call Synod to order and offer prayer. The roll will be called and Dr. J. A. Ingham, stated clerk, will announce that a quorum is not present, whereupon Dr. Wesseling will adjourn Synod for one year, to meet in Rochester on June 4, 1936.

This is the second time since 1800 that Synod has omitted a session. It was omitted in 1833 for the same reason. The cost of Synod is nearly $10,000 even with the most rigid economy and with the denomination, like all the others sorely in need of funds for mission fields and other denominational work it did not seem wise to hold a meeting of Synod. Officers will function as usual and the work of the denomination go on.

There is nothing that would compel the holding of a session of Synod this year nor anything that will suffer if it does not meet. There are several denominational bodies that meet only once in two years regularly and there is a sentiment for a biennial session of Synod. No one knows how strong it is but it will undoubtedly come up next year at Rochester.

All the figures for the year have not been completed, but those in hand show that there has been no great gain or loss over last year. The fact that the church has held its own however is considered encouraging as showing that the bottom of the depression has been reached and better things can be hoped for.

The amendment to the constitution of the church which was offered last year and sent down to the classes, to the effect that Hebrew should be dropped as a requirement for entrance into the Reformed ministry, was lost. The wording of the amendment, which was that "Knowledge of the sacred Scriptures" be substituted for "Knowledge of the original languages and exegesis of the sacred scriptures"; had probably something to do with the defeat of the amendment, because this would also include the dropping of Greek as a requirement for entering the ministry and many were not willing to grant this. This amendment will probably come up again with a new wording. As an alternative the speaker for the Board of Direction of the New Brunswick Seminary at the seminary commencement suggested that the next General Synod be asked to lengthen the seminary course from three to four years to give time for the many subjects now required for the seminary course.

The minutes of Synod for 1935 will be published, but it will be a smaller book than usual, this being another item in the saving of expense.

Kingston High School Nine Defeats Saugerties High, 3-2

Monday afternoon at the Fair Grounds, the Kingston High School baseball team added another team to its victory list by evening affairs with Saugerties High by a score of 3-2. The game was scheduled for seven innings.

The Maroon team opened up fast and pushed two runs over the plate with only one out in the first inning. In the fifth inning Bud Zoller, who was on the mound for Kingston, had a momentary collapse and Saugerties scored their two runs. In the last half of this inning Kingston however promptly hopped on the Saugerties twirler and scored another run to clinch the game.

There was nothing spectacular about the game, there being no long hits or stellar pitching. The longest hit was a double. Both pitchers allowed a half dozen hits which is nothing to write paragraphs about, when the contest is a seven inning game.

Bud Zoller of no-hit fame was on the mound for Kingston. He was picked for seven hits. He kept these hits well scattered, however, and was in danger only once. This was in the seventh inning when the upriver team scored their two runs. Several other times however Saugerties was in a scoring position, but always blew their chances. Zoller didn't walk a single man.

Bruno who was scheduled to do the Saugerties team's twirling saw action only as a pinch hitter. Keenen did the pitching for the Cahillmen. After a bad first inning during which he was plentiful with his walks, he pitched a fairly good game. In the six frames that he pitched, Keenen was nicked for six hits. He walked four men.

The first two of the Kingston runs were scored in the first inning. Captain Jack Murphy scored the first run by coming home on a passed ball after getting on base by balls and being walked around the bases. Clay Harder crossed the plate with the second Kingston run on Tiano's single to left. Harder had gotten on base on a walk.

Saugerties' two runs were scored in the first half of the fifth. Swart singled to center. Rinaldi bunted, but reached first on a fielder's choice. After Wolven had fanned and Keenen fled out, Compachiaro singled to deep center, scoring Swart. With Battaglino at bat, Rinaldi attempted to steal third. Tiano, Kingston catcher, threw wild to third, Rinaldi coming home on the error.

In the last half of the fifth, Kingston scored the deciding run. After DeCicco had fied out, Harder singled to short. Here Tiano doubled along the third baseline, scoring Harder with the winning run.

On Wednesday afternoon, Kingston will play Poughkeepsie High. The game is called for 4 o'clock at the Fair Grounds.

The game yesterday didn't start until 5 o'clock, an hour after the scheduled time. The reason was because Saugerties was delayed for some unknown reason.

Here's one for the books: Saugerties only made two assists.

Harder batted 1,000 yesterday with two hits out of two. Tiano got two hits out of three. Harder scored two Kingston runs and Tiano batted in two.

The DUSO League will wind up on Saturday afternoon, with all of the teams playing. Kingston will play Port Jervis. The DUSO standings to date are as follows:

Closi's Clowns and Z.S. All Stars to Meet

Closi's Clowns and Zwick & Schwartz All Stars will get together at Haverhill Park Wednesday evening and somebody is going to suffer their first defeat. The Clowns will be after their fourth straight victory and the Z. & S. bunch, who defeated the Royals in their first game, will try to make it two. The Clowns will play their regular line-up, with Leo Komara, pitcher and Tomaszewski, catcher. The All Stars will

City League Contest Brings Dairymen and Schryvers Together

Bill Schryvers' Lumbermen, pace setters in the City League, will tackle Jones' Dairymen at the Athletic Field, this evening at 8:15. The Lumbermen have as yet to lose a game, although they have been tied, and they no doubt will be out to keep their slate clean.

The Dairymen, who got off to a bad start, losing their first two games, finally hit their stride in their last game and won. They are expected to give the Lumbermen a hard battle.

Jack Dodge, who has been doing all the hurrying for the Dairymen, will be on the mound again for them. He has pitched good ball in all his contests. "Hyde" Murdock will be the receiver.

Bill Thomas or "King Kong" Shackett will do the twirling for the Lumbermen. Jack Robins will do the receiving.

Braddock Guest at Troop C Headquarters

Sidney, N. Y., June 4 (P)—Jimmy Braddock, the lad who swaps punches with Max Baer June 13 for the world's heavyweight title, turned state trooper for a day but even the rough-riding police couldn't keep his mind off the fight.

"I'm going to depend on my body punch," he said as he sat quietly watching a rodeo staged by the crack riding team of Troop C of the state police. "Baer is made to order for me and I'm in fine shape. Win, lose, or draw it's going to be a great battle."

The New Jersey Irishman, D. Walker Wear, a member of the state Athletic Commission, and a group of newspapermen were the guests yesterday of Captain Daniel E. Fox, head of the Sidney Troop.

Wear, shortly before the luncheon, got Jimmy off in a corner and after a personal conference said he thought he had a good chance to win the championship.

"Braddock has youth, experience and he has shown time and again he can take it," the commissioner told the guests.

Braddock was given a state trooper's sash and wore it throughout the day as he inspected the barracks and watched an exhibition of plain and fancy riding.

Superchargers Win From Jeffersonville, Making Six Straights

The Graham Superchargers of Napamoch hung up their sixth straight win of the season Sunday, when they defeated the fast Jeffersonville A. C. four to two in a game played on Nordland Field, Napamoch.

Jeffersonville went into the lead when two hits and loose fielding put Klees into trouble and two runs were scored. After that Klees could not find the plate and Quick was sent in to relieve him. Quick held the visitors well away from the home plate except in the seventh inning, when Wood and Wyncoop cut a man off third base after a runner had attempted to steal second.

Wyncoop and McAndrews were the only men credited with extra base hits, the former getting a two-bagger and the latter hitting for three bases.

On June 9 the Superchargers will line up against the strong Washington Heights A. C. of Middletown. Sunday's box score:

Bill McKechnie, manager of the Boston Braves, shakes hands with Babe Ruth as the erstwhile "Sultan of Swat" prepares to quit Boston, his baseball playing career at an end. ## Soft Ball Season Opened Monday

The soft ball season was opened Monday evening when the first two games were played on the new soft ball diamonds recently constructed by the city. Uptown the Trinity Lutherans and Fair Street Church teams clashed and the former team came out victorious. The score was 10 to 9. On the Hasbrouck avenue diamond the Congregational Church team defeated the St. John's team by the same score, 10 to 9. Not only were the scores identical but both teams won in the last inning.

Koenig A. C. Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Koenig A. C. will be held in the club rooms on Hasbrouck avenue tonight. All members are requested to be present and to bring their dues cards.

George Blaeholder, who started in the box for Philadelphia, was treated so unkindly that he took refuge in the showers in the sixth inning. Dickey's home run sent Blaeholder off with his fourth straight defeat since he went to the Athletics from the Browns.

That the Yanks went into the game with dire intentions was evidenced in the first inning when, with two aboard, Lazzeri smacked one to the outer reaches for three bases. In the second Crossett whaled a double to account for another tally. The Yanks got three more in a sixth inning uprising capped by Dickey's circuit blow, and Ben Chapman hit a triple to send Combs home with the final run in the seventh with Mahaffey in the box.

Jimmy Doherty, who had languished on the bench all season, was called into service for the first time. He fared well until the ninth inning when he passed Fox to load the bases with one out. Murphy, who relieved him, forced Jinky Higgins to hit into a double play, ending the game. The victory increased the Yankees' lead to two and a half games.

In the only other game in the American League, the Cleveland Indians walked until the 14th inning to unleash an attack that netted seven runs and an 11-4 victory over the down-trodden Browns.

In the only National League game, the St. Louis Cardinals, striving to overhaul the speeding Giants, dropped one to the Chicago Cubs, 6-3.

Fish and GameGroup Securing Members

Figures released today from headquarters, the Ulster County Fish & Game Association, 328 Wall street, show a total of 12 members secured in the first day of the intensive membership drive for 500 members for this year. To date the membership shows 315 sportsmen and sports-women on the rolls. The drive will

The Ulster County Fish and Game Association has placed before the sporting public this year an am-better before releasing them in the streams. While a loss of practically 90 per cent of these trout could be expected if put in the streams at four inches in length, this new method of rearing these fish to six or eight inches in length before releasing should only show about a 10 per cent loan. This pool is easily accessible to all motorists who care to see it. It has been erected through the kindness of George N. Kinsey, Phoenixia, N. Y., on his property on the west side of the Esopus on the Mt. Pleasant-Phoenixia highway. This project to materially increase the number of fishable trout in the streams will cost the association approximately $250.

For Bass Fishermen

The association is netting under permit bass and sunfish from the Hudson river and placing them in the nearby streams and lakes. Crappies, bullheads and perch are also included for the benefit of the fisherman who likes to fish from a boat or just sit on the bank. All lakes and streams planted with fish will be placarded showing the amount and kind of fish released in the water.

This project will cost the association approximately $150.

For Pheasant Hunter

The association is operating a pheasant farm at Ruby, N. Y., on the grounds of Vernon J. Felton with a present capacity of 225 birds. Within four weeks another 225 birds will be added. This project will cost the association approximately $250.

It is interesting to note that the Ulster County Fish and Game Association is one of the very few organizations in the state of New York that operates a trout rearing pool that operates a trout fishing pool and a pheasant farm for the sporting public's benefit. These projects have only been carried through with the thought in mind that the sportsmen of this vicinity will see it successfully financed by joining the association. All fish and game will be released in open territory where everyone is permitted to fish and hunt. Besides these benefits the $2 membership cost brings to each member a year's subscription to "National Sportsman" magazine, a membership card and button, and a quarterly bulletin, "Bag & Creel", which gives among other association news, the exact place of release of all fish and game.

The membership committee working on the drive from June 1 to 15 is composed of Benjamin J. Winne, president; Alexander B. Shufeldt, vice-president; Elliott H. Wight, secretary-treasurer; Raymond F. Caults, field superintendent; Arthur W. Frohlich, director; Victor Spinnenweber, director; Valentine E. Schirlick, director; Walter Williams, Nelson Snyder, Joseph Deegan, Joseph Umbleby, William Henninger, Herbert Thomas, Fred Hoffman, Samuel

Gregg, and Walter Robinson. In addition to the time and effort the above interested sportsmen are giving to secure at least 10 members apiece the association appeals to all other members who haven't as yet brought in another member to do so. Just this article from June 1 to 6

June Term of County Court Adjourned

Judge Frederick G. Traver adjourned the June term of county court until Monday, June 17, at 2 o'clock in order to give the supreme court, still in session, an opportunity to clear up its calendar.

The June term of county court was convened and jurors who presented excuses were permitted to go for the term. The jurors who were not excused were instructed to report back on June 17 at 2 o'clock. A large number of the 32 civil cases on the calendar were marked for trial but probably between now and the adjourned date several settlements will be made. The day calendar of civil cases will be made up on the adjourned date.

District Attorney Cleon E. Murray had no criminal business to transact and the court recessed until June 17 at 2. Sixteen jurors either presented legal excuses or were not served.

Trout Rearing Pool Has Been Completed

The trout rearing pool constructed by the Ulster County Fish and Game Association on the Kinsey property between Mt. Pleasant and Phoenixia has been completed and filled with water and is now awaiting the arrival of 10,000 "speckled beauties" from the State Conservation Department. Ray Cauntis, field secretary, and Benjamin J. Winne, president of the Association, are more than pleased with the results and feel that this project will be of great benefit to trout fishermen in the county who fish the trout streams in the section under the supervision of the local association.

Before long 10,000 four inch trout will be placed in the rearing pool where during the summer and fall they will be fed on a scientific basis instead of being compelled to battle for existence in the streams of the county. By the rearing pool method the loss of trout will be greatly reduced and instead of having a huge loss from natural enemies it is anticipated that fully 90 per cent of the trout will be reared and turned loose next winter to be angled for next season by fishermen who come to Ulster county to fish. Through proper feeding and care these little fellows will be considerably over legal size when released next winter and by spring they will make good fishing for someone.

The rearing pool is constructed on a cement base and is of two inch fir. The pool is 24 by 12 feet in size and deep enough to properly care for the 10,000 trout. Water was turned in last week and the flow of water even in the present dry spell filled the tank in two hours, far sooner than had been expected. The tank has been painted a green color and the bottom covered with pebbles to resemble natural conditions.

During the season when trout are in the pool it will be under proper guard and in addition will be covered and locked to prevent tampering with the fish. Mr. Kinsey, who so kindly granted use of his stream for the pool, has also made provision for caring for the pool. The matter of feed will be an item of expense to the local association but this item is expected can be taken care of through funds derived from memberships. At present a membership drive is underway to bring the total membership up to 500 for the year. Only from memberships are funds derived for this use and for operating the pheasant farm at Ruby and for the purchase of stocking fish for streams and ponds in the locality.

The rearing pool for trout is one of the big projects of the year together with the pheasant raising and bass stocking streams. When filled with water the rearing pool weighs about 20 tons. As soon as the trout are received and placed in the pool sportsmen will be notified and will be welcomed at the pool for inspection.
